SUIT TO DISSOLVE ELECTRIC COMBINE

Government Begins Fight on One of Country's Powerful Monopolies

TRACE TRUST TO ITS ORIGIN

Action Brought Under Sherman Anti-Trust—Big Combine In Restraint of Trade—Thirty-Five Defendants.

Cleveland, Ohio, March 3.—The United States government began here today a fight against what is alleged to be one of the most poweful and complete monopolies in the country, when suit was filed in the United States court against 35 concerns engaged in the manufacture of incandescent electric lights. The National Electric Lamp Company which has its headquarters here and the General Electric Company, of New York, are named as two of the defendants and charged with being the keystone of the trust which has its ramifications in every State in the Union.

According to the government's petition the defendant companies are banded together in a conspiracy in restraint of trade and have already gained control of 97 per cent. of the country's supply of electric lights.

The trust is alleged to have had its origin soon after 1904, the year in which the United States patents on carbon filament incandescent lamps expired. By 1906 a combination known as the Independent Lamp Manufacturers' Association is charged with having obtained control of the lamp output and with having fixed prices, allotted business and prescribed rules of sale for its members. The National Electric Company is stated to have owned 75.2 per cent. of the stock in this combination which is accused of obtaining exorbitant profits by restraining trade and forcing high prices.

The petition asserts that the profits of the combination as paid in dividends $50,000 in 1904, $260,000 in 1909, and $300,000 in 1910.

Last year the company is said to have held $1,439,158.93 as an undivided surplus for its members. The capital is now listed at $5,000,000.

The extent of the industry which is thus brought under fire in the government's anti-trust campaign is shown in the statement that approximately 80,000,000 lamps are sold in this country every year for an aggregate purchasing amount of $18,000,000.

The defendants include not only the alleged members of the combination, but supply companies and others alleged to be engaged in furthering the interests of the combination.

The petition asks that the National Electric Lamp Company be enjoined from voting the stock of, or receiving any dividends from the thirty odd corporations alleged to have been acquired and controlled by it; that the other companies be enjoined from paying dividends to the National Electric Lamp Company; that the General Electric Company which the petition says, controls the holding company, be enjoined from using its stock in that company; that existing and forbid future agreements between the companies be voted and that they be forbidden to exercise control of foreign patents or use the same to suppress competition.

The petition charges that there exists agreements with the Westinghouse company and others to sell lamps at prices dictated by the combination. It further alleges that the defendants have brought up German patents on filament lamps and will not sell the German products unless the buyers agree to buy also the carbon filament lamps; that the combination organized alleged independent companies to sell inferior lamps so as to hurt the trade of the real independents; that contracts were made with dealers in inventions, patents and machinery to confien the sale of their products to the combination; and that the price of lamps sold by the alleged trust to United States customers is 17 cents, while the same is sold abroad for ten cents.

Of the thirty-four companies named in the petition, four are located in Cleveland, and eleven in other Ohio towns.

Government's Last Blow.

Washington, March 3.—The government suit filed at Cleveland today against the General Electric Company, of New York, the Westinghouse Electric Company, of Philadelphia, the National Electric Lamp Company, of New Jersey, and 32 other defendants may be the last blow struck at the so-called electrical trust; as it is the first intimation that the corporations comprising the trust might voluntarily discontinue the practices to which the government objects, is contained in a statement made by Attorney General Wickersham today.

"The defendants have already indicated a disposition to conform to the requirements of the government," said he, "and the department hopes that a dissolution of the combination will be effected without prolonged litigation."

This suit relates only to an alleged

EXONERATE ISLAND OFFICIALS

Philippine Officers Declared Not Guilty of Fraud in Connection With Sale of Friar Lands to the Sugar Trust.

Washington, March 3.—Three reports from the House Committee on Insular Affairs exonerates officers of the Philippine Islands of all irregularities or improprieties in the administration sale or lease of the so-called "Friar lands," which the Philippine government bought from the religious orders.

These reports follow an exhaustive investigation into the charges of Representative Martin, of Colorado, to the effect that the officers had wrongfully sold large tracts of the Friar lands to the sugar trust in violation of the law and had been guilty of other irregularities in regard to the Friar lands.

A majority and minority report on the part of the Republican members of the committee were submitted in the House today. Chairman Olmstead obtained permission for the Democrats to file their report tomorrow. The majority report is signed by Chairman Olmstead and Representatives Crumpacker, Hamilton, Fuller, Graham, Parsons, McKinlay, Douglas and Fornes. The minority report filed today is signed by Madison, Hubbard and Davis. The third, not yet submitted, is expected to bear the signatures of Messrs. Jones, of Virginia; Page, of North Carolina; Garrett, of Tennessee; Denver, of Ohio; Helm, of Kentuck, and Rucker, of Colorado.

Advance intimations of the Democratic reports are to the effect like the others, it will absolve the Philippine officials of intentional wrong doing and concede that they acted with in the interpretation of law laid down by the law officers by whose opinion they were bound to be guided; but will hold that their actions was in pursuance of a mistaken policy. It is said to be the position of these members of the committee that the Friar lands should have been administered as public lands under the provision of the "organic law" of the islands, and that even if this view of their legal statue be not sustained by the law, it is nevertheless a mistaken policy to sell these lands in tracts larger than those permitted under the limitations affecting the public domain.

AFFIRMED HIS CONVICTION.

J. M. Huston Charged With Fraud in Finishing Capitol.

Williamsport, Pa., March 3.—The State Superior Court in session here today affirmed the conviction in the Dauphin county court of Joseph M. Huston, of Philadelphia, architect of the Pennsylvania State capitol at Harrisburg, the last of the fourteen men indicted in the scandal to face a trial court. Huston was convicted of conspiracy to defraud the State in conection with the furnishings of the capitol and was sentenced to a term of not less than six months nor more than two years in prison and to pay a fine of $500.

The magnificent capitol was erected at a cost of $13,000,000 and the State charged that it was defrauded out of about $5,000,000 in the furnishings. The State made no charges of fraud in the construction of the building. After the capitol was completed Huston was engaged by the board of public grounds and buildings to buy special furniture and special decorations and it is said that in connection with this work frauds were committed.

A MURDER NEAR NEWBERRY.

Mob of Citizens Searching for Negro Slayer of White Man.

Newberry, S. C., March 3.—An angry mob of Newberry citizens is tonight searching for Sam Boozer, a negro, who today shot and killed James Gilliam, a white man of the Old Town neighborhood, following a difficulty between Gilliam and two women of Boozer's household, in which the negresses were badly cut. A lynching is feared if the negro is caught. Gilliam was managing a farm about ten miles from Newberry. It is stated he had been drinking and made an attack upon Boozer's house, seriously cutting the negro's wife. Later Boozer secured a shot gun and killed Gilliam.

NEED DOCTOR'S TRUST.

Says Prof. Henderson In Address to Medical Association.

Chicago, March 2.—In an address before the Medical Association, Professor Charles F. Henderson, of the University of Chicago, advocated the formation of a "doctor's trust." He said that through such an agency "the public would be freed from quacks and charlatans."

"Free competition in each calling his limits of usefulness," said Professor Henderson. "A doctor's trust is desirable on certain conditions; it must admit all who are competent; it must use fair tests to exclude all others, and its charges must not be prohibitive to the poor."

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., March 3.—Miss Beatrice Bulla, of Asheboro, N. C., was among the young ladies chosen as commencement speakers in June at Vassar College, it was announced here tonight.

61ST. CONGRESS ENDS ITS SESSION

Will Expire by the Constitutional Limitation at Noon Today

A RETROSPECT OF THE WORK

Exceeding Small Product of "Short Term" Just Coming to an End. Influence of President Taft in Legislation.

Washington, D. C., March 3.—In the retrospect the 61st Congress, which will expire by constitutional limitation at noon tomorrow, appears to have been distinguished by three things:

The revision of the tariff in the so-called Payne-Aldrich bill, which was passed at an extra session in the Summer of 1909; the large amount of important legislation, much of it upon the recommendation of President Taft enacted at the regular session of 1909-10, and the exceeding small product of the "short session", so-called, now coming to a close.

The interval between the last two sessions was marked by the political upheaval registered at the general election of last November, which changed a large Republican majority into a still larger Democratic majority in the House of Representatives; cut the Republican majority in the Senate almost to the vanishing point and incidentally made striking changes in the Senate personnel.

The failure of this session to enact much legislation has resulted in the political certainty that the new 62nd Congress will be called almost immediately in extraordinary session, and practically by reason of the strong desire of President Taft to secure action upon the pending reciprocity agreement with Canada, to the consummation of which the contracting parties pledged the utmost efforts of the two governments.

In strong contrast with the support which the Taft administration received from the Republican majority in the matter of legislation in the regular session of 1909-10 is the fact that at the present session the majority has been anything but united; the reciprocity agreement was passed in the House by the aid of a large proportion of Democratic votes, while in the Senate the rift in the majority between the "regulars" and the "insurgents" has been an important factor in its side tracking and in the consequent summoning of the extra session.

To this division in the majority was largely due the most dramatic feature of the previous long session—the protracted and sensational conflict last Spring which ended in material changes in the rules of the House generally interpreted as "the overthrow of the Speaker," and which, after a bitter fight lasting many hours and including one all night struggle, stopped only just short of the actual unseating of Speaker Cannon. While the acrimony between regulars and insurgents neither began nor ended with the battle over the rules, that was its most conspicuous episode, and there has been little peace between the factions since in either House.

In the Senate the most sensational feature of this session was the unavailing effort, in which the insurgents were most active, to unseat William Lorimer as junior senator from Illinois, on the ground of alleged bribery in connection with his election by the Legislature of that State in the Spring of 1909. The echoes of that battle are still reverberating, and its bitterness adds friction to the closing hours of the Senate session.

Another important recent action of the Senate was the defeat of the resolution embodying a proposed amendment to the constitution of the United States to provide for the direct election of senators by the people.

This resolution received more than a majority of the Senate, but it needed a two-thirds vote and fell short by only four. Had the Senate passed it, the House almost certainly would have done so. The friends of this proposition entertain little doubt that it will pass the next Congress, and go to the States for ratification or defeat.

The output of this session in the way of general measures consists chiefly of the appropriation bills and several of those have seemed in danger more than once in the tense situation of the past few days, when long hours passed away in filibustering on one side or the other.

Thousands of bills have been introduced and several thousand more came to the closing session as a heritage from the first and second sessions. In all there are about 350,000 introduced and 45,000 measures before the Congress as it comes to a close. The failure to enact many laws was not due to lack of raw material.

These are some of the important measures outside appropriation bills, that the final session of this Congress enacted into law:

Providing for forest reserves in the Southern Appalachian and White Mountains.

Providing for the inspection of boilers on locomotives.

Providing for the purchase or erection of embassies, legations and consular buildings abroad.

An ocean mail bill passed the Sen-

GEORGIA ROBBERS CONVICTED

Three Who Robbed Southern Train Given Long Sentences—Anderson Gets 20 Years—Two Pleaded Guilty.

Gainesville, Ga., March 3.—George Anderson, alias "Old Bill" Miner, was given a prison sentence of 20 years and George Hanford and Charles Hunter sentences of 15 years each at the conclusion of their trial here today for alleged complicity in the robbery of an express car on a Southern railway passenger train near White Sulphur Springs recently.

After being sentenced the prisoners arose and thanked the judge for not imposing heavier sentence, Anderson saying: "That you judge robbery is robbery, and here's another case."

Upon being arraigned Anderson entered a plea of not guilty, but Hanford and Hunter pleaded guilty and turned State's evidence. On the witness stand they stated that Anderson was the leader of the gang, which was organized in Pennsylvania, they said, with the avowed purpose of committing a train robbery in this State.

Anderson is wanted in Victoria, B. C., to serve the remainder of a term for train robbery, but his conviction here today means that he will not be surrendered to the Canadian authorities until after the completion of his sentence in Georgia. As he is 65 years old, he probably will never be required to complete his term in Canada.

The robbery in which the prisoners were implicated took place soon after midnight February 18th. Five men, for two of whom the officers are still searching, boarded the train and blew open a safe in the express car, securing $2,000. The bandits made their escape but five days later two of them, Hanford and Hunter, and the following day, Anderson, were captured not far from the scene of the robbery.

AVIATION RECORD IS MADE.

Army Officer and Aviator Went 106 Miles in Two Hours.

Laredo, Texas, March 3.—A world's aviation record was broken between this city and Eagle Pass today when Lieutenant Benjamin D. Folois, United States Army, and Aviator Philip C. Parmalee, drove an army aeroplane 106 miles in two hours, seven minutes.

The flight is a world's record in point of time and is also a record for the United States for a two-man journey through the air.

Carrying the United States flag nailed to the looter plane, the machine left the ground at Fort McIntosh at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Reaching an altitude of 2,000 feet the aviators pointed the nose of the air craft to the north and darted out of sight. At intervals the Mexican federal telegraph line carried messages reporting their progress and shortly after 4 o'clock a message came saying that they had arrived at Eagle Pass at 4:07 o'clock.

Army officers are greatly pleased with the performance of the aeroplane and say that it is a factor to be reckoned with in future aggressive military maneuveres. The areoplane was equipped with a may making outfits within the reach of the men in the machine was a gun.

SCARE IN LEGISLATURE.

False Alarm of Fire at Alabama Capitol Interrupted Debate.

Montgomery, Ala., March 3.—A false alarm called out the entire Montgomery fire department tonight at 8 o'clock to the State capitol. The firemen made a quick run up capitol hill but could find nothing resembling a blaze when they reached there. The House was in the midst of a debate on the liquor regulation bill when some one shouted that the capitol was on fire. There was much confusion and the debate was interrupted for half an hour. When it was learned that there was no fire, the legislators returned to the hall and resumed the night session.

INCREASE POSTAGE PART STRUCK OUT

Postoffice Bill Passed With Provision Affecting Magazines Killed

VICTORY FOR THE PUBLISHERS

Acrimonious Debate on Appropriation Measure in Senate Yesterday. Hitchcock Hears Attack on His Department.

Washington, March 3.—The Senate this evening passed the postoffice appropriation bill, carrying about $258,000,000 after striking from it the provision increasing to four cents a pound the postal rate on the advertising sections of the large magazines.

Postmaster General Hitchcock sat in the chamber while the bill was under consideration and witnessed the defeat of the plan that he had recommended. Senator Penrose, chairman of the Postoffice Committee, recognized the futility of attempting to secure the passage of the bill with the magazine rate feature embodied. It was clear enough that Senators who opposed it would so impede the progress of the measure as to defeat if not that, other legislation that offered promise of enactment.

Though withdrawing the provision, Mr. Penrose yet hoped for its ultimate success. He secured the unanimous adoption of a substitute authorizing the President to appoint a commission of three members to make thorough investigation of the whole cost of handling second-class matter. It is provided that one of the commissioners shall be a judicial officer of the government and the other two shall be persons who hold no office and who have no connection whatever with the Postoffice Department or with any magazine or newspaper.

The debate on the provision, prior to its withdrawal by Mr. Penrose, was engaged in by several senators and at times was marked by some acrimony.

Senator Cummins announced that if the proposition were not withdrawn he would undertake "to talk it to death."

Among the amendments adopted in the Postoffice Appropriation bill was one by Senator Swanson granting 30 days' leave of absence annually to rural free delivery letter carriers.

Senators Owen and Bristow roundly denounced the proposed increase in the postoffice measure on the magazines. The latter, turning to where Postmaster General Hitchcock was seated in the chamber, said the Senate had a right to know whether the deficit in the Postoffice Department is due to second class matter or "inefficiency and mismanagement in the department." A moment later Senator Bristow added:

"I don't want to be misunderstood. I am not directing any criticism against the present management of the department or the present incumbent of the office of Postmaster General. He has inherited a system that has been growing up for years and for which he is in no wise responsible. But there never was a greater slander sent out under official authority than the campaign directed against the popular magazines and the charge that they are subsidized by the American people."

Senator Jones, of Washington, took the magazines sharply to task for attempting to create the impression that the movement for increased postage was due to a desire for revenge by the present administration. The senator said he had received through magazine publishers a number of circular letters signed by his constituents. All of these letters, he declared, began the same way and protested against the action of a revengeful President and his scheming advisers.

"A magazine," said Senator Jones, "that will lend itself to a campaign to create this sort of feeling against a chief executive is not entitled to any commendation to say the least."

Senator Jones said he had also received a number of personal letters from constituents who really believed that the magazines might be put out of business by the proposed increase. To these Senator Jones said he would commend a prospectus sent out recently by one of the popular magazines concerning the profits of magazine publishing. The Senator read extensively from the pamphlet and declared that he believed the impression created "on the people of the country was not justified."

Senator Bristow interrupted Senator Jones to remark that he believed the animus behind the movement to increase the rate was political and not financial—that it was intended to suppress the magazine rather than encourage them.

Senator Stone desired to know if the charge of the senator from Kansas was directed against the postoffice committee of the Senate, the President of the United States, or the Postmaster General.

"I do not allege that the committee or that the Postmaster General or the President are doing this. I say that political considerations inspired this movement against the magazines that have been instrumental in exposing the rottenness in public life in America," replied Senator Bristow.

"There has been much muck-raking

CLOSING EVENTS OF CONGRESS

Important Measures Considered by Both Houses—Peary Will be Retired as Rear Admiral—Extra Session Sure.

Washington, March 3.—With the virtual certainty of an early extra session of Congress beclouding their horizon both Houses of Congress were in session at a late hour tonight grinding through the mass of routine legislation which must be completed before final adjournment at noon tomorrow.

From the White House, practically from the lips of President Taft himself, came late in the day the admission that the President had abandoned all hope for the passage of the Canadian reciprocity agreement and awaited now only the formal confirmation of its failure to issue his call for an extra session. The President gave little outward evidence of his disappointment, though it is well known to be rather keen. He went to the theatre to enjoy a light opera.

The date of the extra session has not been definitely fixed. The Democrats want it to be deferred unto April, the Republicans want it to start if start it must, as soon as possible. At the White House today it was intimated rather definitely that the date the President has in mind is March 15th.

Two interesting and unexpected features marked the evening. Both houses passed the bill to give the rank and retired pay of a rear admiral and the thanks of Congress to Robert E. Peary in recognition of his attainment of the North Pole. The bill had been regarded as hopelessly lost in the tangle of legislation in the House, but was revived and passed to the Senate which concurred without delay. Under this bill Peary will be placed "on the retired list of the corps of civil engineers with the rank of rear admiral to date from April 6, 1909, with the highest retired pay of that grade under existing law."

That is the date upon which Peary attained his goal.

The other unexpected episode was Senator Lorimer's motion to strike from the general deficiency bill an appropriation of $25,000 to reimburse him for his expenses in defending his title to a seat in the Senate. This gave rise to an acrimonious debate, some senators who are members of the appropriation committee more than intimating that the item had been put in the bill without the knowledge of the members of the committee. The Senate agreed to Senator Lorimer's motion.

During the afternoon and early evening the Senate passed and sent to the House four appropriation bills providing for the expenditure of more than $500,000,000. They were the postoffice, naval, sundry civil and general deficiency appropriation bills, the latter the last of the big supply measures. The thing which chiefly marked the passage of the postoffice bill was the abandonment of the proposed increase of magazine postage and the substitution of a provision for a commission to be appointed by the President to investigate the whole subject.

House Debate Waxed Warm.

Washington, March 3.—A filibuster in the House tonight threatened still further to complicate the difficult situation in which the 61st Congress found itself upon the eve of its dissolution.

The permanent tariff board bill was the cause of it all. That measure is not in the House just now, but the majority is looking for its return from the Senate tomorrow morning when the latter body expects to pass it. So determined that it should not be talked to death in the House, the rules committee tonight brought in a rule that would shut off debate immediately upon the receipt of the measure from the Senate.

Democrats incensed by the presentation of such a rule at once launched a filibuster against the naval bill as amended by the Senate. This was short lived, however, and that measure and the sundry civil bill were sent to conference. Before this was accomplished, however, some sharp talk was heard. Mr. Garner, of Texas, attackd the Republicans for trying to force on them the tariff board.

He declared that if the Republicans purpose to "force down us" a tariff board bill, we purpose that you shall fight your own battles through to the end," referring to the appropriation bills.

Mr. Hardwick, of Georgia, said that the Republicans' inability to transact their own business would mean the framing of their own indictment for incompetency.

Mr. Clayton, of Alabama, declared that the Democratic party does not need the tariff board. He arraigned the Republicans for an attempt to force tariff board legislation, on which the Democratic party had split and defined his ideas of party leadership in sharp language that aroused considerable discussion among his Democratic colleagues. Mr. Clayton was declaring that the Republicans could not charge the Democrats with any necessity for calling an extra session and added that the Democrats who had preceded him had defined well and accurately what he believe to be a majority view of the Democratic side.

Mr. Tawney warned the Democrats that responsibility for the calling of an extra session of Congress would rest upon them if they blocked the passage of the big supply measures.

Finally Mr. Foss, of Illinois, moved that the naval bill be immediately sent back to conference as it was vital to act immediately. Mr. Garner with-

GOVERNOR'S PAY FIVE THOUSAND

House Shaves Amount and Sends Bill to Senate for Concurrence

OTHER IMPORTANT MEASURES

Railroad Employes Relieved—Chadbourn Authorized to Issue Bonds. Two Bills Local to New Hanover County.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., March 3.—The House this afternoon amended the Senate bill to raise the salary of the Governor from $4,000 to $6,000 to make the salary $5,000, the vote veing 48 to 43 for the amendment, which was by Doughton. The bill then passed its readings almost without opposition and was sent to the Senate for concurrences.

The point was made that extras in the way of traveling expenses and allowances for upkeep of the mansion and other purposes made the present salary equivalent to $8,000.

Speaker Dowd explained that $1,000 increase would make the Governor's salary equivalent to upwards of $9,000.

The House passed the bill to make violation of Sunday laws a misdemeanor, the vote being 48 to 37.

The bill to make Jefferson Davis' birthday, June 3rd, a holiday, and the bill to authorize the State Treasurer to give notes to the amount of $250,000, in the event the revenues the next two years are not sufficient to meet the appropriations, made by the present Legislature, were passed.

In the Senate.

The Senate this afternoon passed the House bill by Quickel to relieve railroad employes of being guilty of a misdemeanor in working over 16 hours, as it came from the House, and ordered it enrolled. This relieves a legal kink in damage suits in that the Supreme Court has ruled employes guilty of a misdemeanor by working over time, and sustaining injuries, have no standing in court for damages.

Among the bills ordered enrolled were: Authorize employment of court stenographer in New Hanover county; relative to autos in New Hanover county. Included with those sent to the House were: Provide medical inspection of school children in towns of over 4,000. Provide for carrying out orders of Corporation Commission as to industrial sidings.

Chadbourn's High School.

Record breaking time was made in passing Senator Brown's bill empowering the trustees of Chadbourn High School to borrow money to rebuild the school building destroyed by fire last night. The bill was introduced and passed its readings in both Houses and was ordered enrolled within 15 minutes.

Anti-Trust Bill.

The House passed the Turlington anti-trust bill this afternoon with an amendment with Representative Doughton cutting out the provision that the solicitor and other prosecutors of trusts shall have 40 per cent. of fines imposed when convictions are secured, the amendment providing that the judge can make an allowance to solicitor.

Turlington explained his bill as conforming to the recommendations of the Governor as to providing funds for the expense of prosecutions through the Attorney General and solicitors and adding sub-sections prohibiting the use of coupons, rebates and prizes in the sale of merchandise, and another making it a misdemeanor to solicit trade by means of false representations as to connection with other business enterprises and as to ownership of business. The bill passed 95 to 6.

Fish Bill Defeated.

The bill to create a State Fish Commission to control the commercial fishing interests that was proposed by Legislative commission after two years expensive study of the situation under direction of the 1909 Legislature and which had passed the House was defeated in Senate today 44 to 1, after it had been amended to exempt Carteret, Currituck, Onslow and Hyde counties. The vote against the bill was on the ground that as amended it would be ineffective.

The Revenue Bill.

The Senate spent the remainder of the morning session on the revenue bill. Section as to revolver dealers was amended to make the tax $50 instead of $100; also an amendment to Section 59 by the House allowing counties, cities and towns to impose additional license taxes on telephone companies was stricken out.

Politicians Still Active.

The House voted 38 to 31 to table the motion to make the Senator Hobgood primary bill the special order tonight, indicating rough sailing for the measure in the House.

Committee Reports.

There were favorable reports from committees on bills to charter the Greensboro, Roxboro & Norfolk Railroad; State Text Book Commission bill; exempt drained lands from taxation for period of years. The Kellum bill to have the sale of the Atlantic and Yadkin Railroad to the Atlantic Coast Line and its division between the Coast Line and Southern investigated by the Corporation Commission passed under suspended rules and was sent to the House.

Boards of Education.

The House passed the bill carrying the appointment of members of county boards of education and it was sent to the Senate. Notable new bills offered included:

Kellum, to allow Wilmington to appropriate $10,000 annually for advertising purposes.

Thorne, to extend the corporate limits of Greenville to include the grounds of the East Carolina Teachers' Training School.

Western Training School.

The House received from the committee on Appropriations an unfavorable report for the bill to establish the Western Carolina Teachers' Training School. The vote of the committee was 7 to 6. The bill had passed the Senate.

General Appropriationn Bill.

The House tonight received from the Appropriations Committee, passed and sent to the Senate the general State appropriation bill carrying $1,607,000 for the State institutions.

Chairman Turlington, of the Appropriations Committee, explained that the bill allowed only one-fourth of the amounts asked for by the various institutions.

The State University gets $135,000; State Normal, $113,000; A. & M. College $95,000, and a supplemental bill allowing the department of Agriculture to provide $30,000 additional for building for animal industry; East Carolina Training School, $45,000; tuberculosis sanitorium, $22,500; Soldiers' Home, $30,000; State school for deaf and dumb, $67,000; State hospital, Morganton, $195,000; Raleigh, $175,000; Goldsboro, $85,000; Stonewall Jackson Training School Reformatory, $25,000; Appalachian Training School, $15,000.

Many Bills Ratified.

There were 109 acts of the Legislature ratified tonight, the total number of the session running up to 911. Notable among those ratified were: Establish ferry across Cape Fear at county line landing; provide public terminal property at Southport; amend charter of Whiteville; construct and maintain Charlotte-Wilmington Highway; allow Brunswick to establish convict force; road law for Robeson county; Duplin road law

Senate—Fifty-Ninth Day.

President Newland convened the Senate at 10 o'clock, Rev. T. W. O'Kelly, of the First Baptist church, offering prayer.

The 60-hour labor bill was made a special order for tonight at 8 o'clock.

Only two new bills were introduced—one by Senator Pinnix to amend an act relative to a bond issue by Booneville, and the other by Senator Kitchin, to restore the June term of court to Halifax county. (The latter passed and was sent to the House).

Fish Commission Bill Voted Down.

The bill to appoint a State Fish Commission was reported without prejudice by the Committee on Fish and Fisheries. Senator Davis offered an amendment to exempt Carteret, Currituck and Onslow. Senators Rascoe and Cotten spoke for the bill and Senator Barham for the amendment, which was adopted by a vote of 28 to 14. Senator Martin, of Washington, offered an amendment to exempt Hyde and it was adopted. Senator Rascoe stated that these amendments made the bill ineffective and moved to table.

The bill, as amended, then failed to pass third reading by a vote of 44 to 1, the Senators contending that it had become valueless by amendments.

Senator Bassett announced that he had voted "no," but would later move to reconsider the vote by which the bill was killed.

Revenue Bill Passed.

The Senate as a committee of the whole, spent over an hour considering the remaining sections of the revenue bill, and in Section 82 struck out the House amendment which allowed counties, cities and towns to impose additional taxes on telephone companies. The tax on pistol dealers, Section 69, was reduced to $50 instead of $100, which was the amount fixed at last night's session. The vote on Section 60 was reconsidered and a tax of $25 fixed for itinerant salesmen of agricultural impelments using two-hourse teams. No further changes were made and the bill passed third reading and was sent to the House for concurrence in the Senate amendments.

Reading Clerk Collapses.

Reading Clerk Mark Squires suffered a nervous breakdown during the morning session and was removed by a physician to his room. His duties have been very exacting and arduous and his nerves gave way under the terrible strain. His condition is not considered serious and his countless friends are hoping that his indisposition will be brief.

Senator Bassett offered a resolution, which was unanimously adopted, authorizing the Lieutenant Governor to appoint an assistant reading clerk for the rest of the session. Mr. Charles U. Harris, of Raleigh, was appointed.

Strawberry Bill Passed.

Senator Brown and Senator Johnson had a spirited tilt over the bill to encourage and protect the strawberry industry and other perishable fruits, vegetable and truck crops. Senator Brown urged its passage and Senator Johnson opposed, offering an amendment exempting Duplin and Pender counties. Senator Bellamy offered an amendment to exempt Brunswick county. These amendments were adopted and the bill as amended passed third reading and was sent to the House.

All amendments were voted down and the bill passed to become effective January 1st, next.

House Fifty-Ninth Day.

Speaker Dowd convened the House at 10 o'clock, Rev. Mr. North, of the Methodist church, offering prayer.

For the Committee on Agriculture, Mr. Mitchell reported unfavorably Speaker Dowd's bill for the consolidation of the State Department of Agriculture and the A. & M. College. He stated that the committee regarded the matter too important to undertake to settle at this late stage of the legislative session and that the committee would prepare a resolution for a committee to be appointed to investigate the advisability of such consolidation and report to the next General Assembly.

There came from the Committee on Railroads a favorable report for the bill to incorporate the Greensboro, Roxboro and Norfolk Railroad.

There was also a favorable report from the committee on the resolution to exempt drained lands in North Carolina from taxation for a period of years.

The School Text Book Commission Bill amending the Revisal as to its organization as it has passed by the Senate was reported from committee favorably.

There was unfavorable report for the State Primary bill that has passed the Senate. This was from the Committee on Elections, and it was accompanied by a favorable report as a minority report but signed by a majority of the members of the committee.

A rough sailing outlook for the primary bill in the House was indicated by the fact that a motion by Mr. Rose for the bill to have special order preference for Friday night was tabled 38 to 31. It was opposed by Doughton, Turlington, Ewart and others who insisted that the bill take its turn on the calendar.

The bill to abolish the city prison in Wilmington was reported unfavorably and laid on the table.

The House tabled a Senate resolution to pay the expenses of a committee that attended the funeral of the late N. A. McLean. He was an honored ex-Senator and died in Raleigh two weeks ago.

New Bills Still Coming.

New bills were introduced as follows:

Doughton: Joint resolution relative to the A. & M. College and the Department of Agriculture.

McArthur: Joint resolution relative to appointment of a committee to investigate the advisability of consolidating the A. & M. College and the State Department of Agriculture.

The rules were suspended and this resolution passed on all its readings, and was sent to the Senate.

Kellum: Promote the welfare of the city of Wilmington by empowering the aldermen of Wilmington to appropriate as much as $10,000 for advertising purposes.

Bryan: Relative to listing property for taxation.

Koonce: For the relief of certain negroes who served in the Civil War with their masters.

Wood: Provide bloodhounds for Transylvania.

Sikes: Provide for working certain persons on the Union county farm. (This was Bil No. 2,000.)

Ross: Create Summerville School disrtcit in Harnett.

Marshall: Repeal the Surry ticket saving law.

Turlington: Require State auditor to furnish uniform blanks for filing statements by the various State institutions. (Adopted at once and sent to the Senate.)

Thorne: Amend Pitt officers's salary law. (Rules suspended, and bill passed and sent to the Senate.)

Thorne: Amend the charter of Greenville by extending the corporate limits to include the East Carolina Training School. (Rules suspended and the bill passed and sent to the Senate.)

Connor: Incorporate Wilson county Negro Business League of Wilson.

Bill to Investigate A. & Y. Deal Passed.

Representative Ray, of Macon, called up the Kellum bill for the Corporation Commission to investigate the sale and division of the Atlantic and Yadkin railroad between the Southern and the Atlantic Coast Line and asked its immediate passage on the ground that the criticisms being made on this transaction are causing reflections on some of the best men of the State who were members of the 1899 Legislature. He was now satisfied that justice to these men required such an investigation. The bill was passed and sent to the Senate.

County School Board Bill.

Chairman Spainhour, of the Committee on Education, submitted the report of the committee recommending the county boards of education as recommemnded for appointment by the Legislature.

Representatives Ewart and Taylor fought for Republican representation at least for their Republican counties, insisting that it was neither just nor fair for the minority to have no representation. Such amendments were not allowed and after some minor changes the bill was passed and sent to the Senate.

Omnibus J. P. Bill.

Chairman Latham reported the Omnibus Justice of the Peace Bill carrying 850 appointees in all the counties of the State. A number of typographical errors could be corrected. An especially notable error that ruffled Representative Doughton was that "Job's Cabin" township, Wilkes county, was listed for its appointments as "Job's Coffin." The bill was made a special order for passage tonight.

Bills Passed Final Reading.

Create school district in parts of Harnett and Cumberland. Allow Forsyth to issue bonds and create good roads commission. Revise charter of Kernersville. Establish graded school for Cameron. Establish graded school for Edenton. Establish graded school at Faison. Allow Hoke to issue bonds for court house and jail. Incorporate Raleigh & Western Railroad Co. Submit to Hendersonville question of $100,000 bonds for western training school. Allow Harnett to vote road bonds. Allow Lee to vote on road bonds. Amend charter of Waynesville.

Turlington Anti-Trust Bill.

The Turlington Anti-Trust bill came up for final passage under special order. Mr. Turlington spoke for twenty minutes. He declared that his bill was prepared by one of the ablest lawyers and best officials of North Carolina and was in accord with the recommendations made by Governor Kitchin in his message to the Legislature, and was practically the law of 1907 with two sub-sections 1 and F. "1" reads: "For any person firm or corporation or association to use coupons, rebates or prizes of any kind in packages of merchandise or other articles of value sold in this State."

"F"—"For any person, firm, corporation or association to solicit, trade, patronage or good will of any person, firm or corporation or association within the State of North Carolina by means of false statements as to his, their or its connection, alliance or relation with or to any other persons, firms, corporations or associations or as to the ownership of his, their or its business."

All other parts of the bill Mr. Turlington explained, had been recommended by the Governor or the Attorney General for the better enforcement of the present law.

Judge Ewart followed with an extended speech advocating his substitute bill which embodied the Texas Anti-Trust law. He told of what had been accomplished in Texas and insisted that as much could be done in this State if there was really trust oppression in North Carolina.

The Ewart substitute was voted down by a big majority. A large number of amendments poured in for the Turlington bill. One by Mr. Doughton was accepted by Turlington. It struck out the provision that would allow the solicitors prosecuting to receive 40 per cent. of the fines imposed when convictions were secured. The amendment provided that the judge should have the making of all allowance to the solicitor and other prosecutors. All other amendments were rejected. The bill then passed its readings 95 to 6. The noes were Caviness, Crumpler, Edwards, Fagg, Stimson and Teague, all Republicans.

Congressional Appointment.

Mr. Doughton stated to the House that since the House passed the Congressional apportionment bill last night that put Randolph out of the Seventh into the Fourth district strong opposition had come from the people of Randolph and it was desired to have the vote reconsidered by which this was done. However, Mr. Coxe, of Randolph, was out of the hall and the matter was left open until the night session.

The House took recess at 2:20 to 4 o'clock.

The House tonight passed on second reading the Carter bill to prohibit the marriage of first cousins. Connor, of Wilson, objected in the name of many happy married couple in this State who are first cousins," to vote on third reading and the bill went over. The House passed the Senate bill to establish a school for feeble minded, cutting appropriation from $60,000 to 640,000. The bill passed also increasing the salary of Superior Court judges to $3,250 and $750 expenses and Supreme Court judges to $4,000.

"CHIEF" NOW IN GEORGIA.

Arrived From Danville to Answer Murder Charge.

Atlanta, Ga., March 3.—Edgar Stripling, police chief of Danville, Va., who was arrested there yesterday for complicity in a murder fourteen years ago, arrived here today in charge of Sheriff Smith, Harris county, Georgia, where the killing occurred. He was taken to Hamilton, Ga., tonight.

Atlanta, Ga., March 3.—Pressure will be brought to bear on Governor Brown to pardon Edgar Stripling, chief of police of Danville, Va., who was arrested yesterday at Danville and brought as far as Atlanta today on his way to Harris county, Ga., to begin serving a life sentence for killing W. J. Cornett, 14 years ago.

Prominent citizens of Atlanta are lending their influence to the movement which was begun by friends of Stripling soon after he arrived here in custody of officers at noon. Under the name of R. E. Morris, Stripling has been chief of police at Danville for five years and was expecting to be re-elected for another term at a meeting of the city council of Danville tonight. Those who have joined the movement for a pardon for him say his manner of life since he escaped from jail in Harris county, soon after being convicted of the killing of Cornett, has gone far to atone for the crime and they express confidence that the governor will grant the pardon. He is being held in jail here pending application for a pardon and action by the governor.

INTEREST IN HAYES CASE

Trial Next Week Will Consume Several Days—Newspapers Criticised—Hon. O. L. Clark in Town—Primary.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., March 3,—It having been decided to try the Hayes case Monday, the trial will doubtless consume several days. During the argument in the court room the statement was made that "faked" reports were sent out calculated to prejudice the minds of the public.

T. L. Gantt, editor of the News-Reporter, said every word published in his paper, or sent out from his office to the press of other cities, was written by himself and based on information received from what he believed, and still believes, to be reliable parties; that when court convenes next Monday there will be persons in Whiteville who will substantiate every word, if called on. Mr. Gantt further says if any person or persons assert that he "faked" interviews, or wilfully published a word designed to influence public opinion or to the prejudice of either side, he or they state what is absolutely false. Mr. Gantt says as a newspaper man he gave simply reports that came to his knowledge, and he did not permit his feelings or sympathy to bias what he wrote for he was entirely impartial between the State and the accused. He declined to publish criticisms at the request of members of the bar, and used every possible care to give both sides a square deal. He is solely and alone responsible for the interviews and reports published in the News-Reporter, or sent out from his office, and he is ready, if the court desires, to furnish his reason or authority for anything he has published or circulated. He says that until this case is ended he intends to give the fullest and most impartial reports.

Hon. Oscar L. Clark, of Clarkton, was one of the distinguished and welcome visitors to Whiteville yesterday. Mr. Clark says farmers are well advanced with their work, and he never knew a more promising outlook for crops. Mr. Clark was looking well. While he did not so state, the impression prevails that he will again be in the race for Congress in his district.

Farmers in town this week are very much interested in the State primary bill, introduced by Representatives Shipman and Hobgood, and are anxious to have it passed.

Mr. Boney, representing the Charleston News and Courier, and Mr. E. J. Sherwood, of the Conway Field, were in Whiteville yesterday, taking notes on the Hayes case. The New York World and several other leading dailies had reporters here, and the World secured photographs of all parties to publish. This case attracts a great deal of information. The Star will be furnished each day while the trial is in progress, all the evidence taken.

VANDERBILTS TO SOUTH.

Travel in Private Car Over Atlantic Coast Line.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., March 3.—There were two private cars attached to the night southbound passenger train No. 85 last night. The private cars were the "Republic" and the "Signet," the first named being the property of the Vanderbilts and in last night's car was Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Sr. This car had as its destination Georgetown, S. C. The other car had as its passengers Mrs. Charles H. Mallon and party who were en route from New York to Charleston, S. C.

For a discussion of the many items that prolex the division superintendent, and for thrashing out of the knotty problems that confront such officials, there was held in the office of the Superintendent of Transportation in this city this morning a meeting of the several division superintendents and the general superintendent, Mr. W. H. Newell. Those who attended the meeting, which was of about two hours duration, were Mr. E. Phennegar, of the Richmond district; Mr. B. H. Hughes, of the Norfolk district; Mr. V. R. C. King, of the Wilmington district, he representing Mr. Fountain the district superintendent who was unable to attend on account of Illness, Mr. G. G. Lynch, of the Florence district; Mr. C. L. Porter, of the Fayetteville district, and Mr. V. S. Wright, the terminal train master of this city. There was nothing of public interest that was disposed of, though the operation of a new schedule that becomes effective on Sunday next came in for its share of consideration.

MURCHISON LAND SOLD.

Twelve Thousand Acres in Yancey County to Pennsylvanian.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Asheville, N. C., March 3.—The famous Murchison boundary of 12,000 of timber lands in Yancey county was sold today by the Murchison Lumber company, Lewis Carr, Joseph Keys, et al, to Ward F. Brown, of Puxsutawney, Pa., for $300,000. The than a year ago the Murchison heirs of Wilmington, sold the property to Carr and associates for $200,000. The price today of $25 per acre is the highest recorded here for timber lands. Included is the Northeastern slope of Mount Mitchell boundary passing near Elizha Mitchell's tomb. The passing of this boundary into the hands of operators strengthens the belief that the Black Mountain railroad now under construction in Yancey county will be built to Asheville connecting with the C. C. & O. The Murchisons purchased this land in 1877 for less than $2,50

AFFAIRS AT RALEIGH.

Carolina Circuit of Fairs—Charters Issued—Workman Injured.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., March 3.—Secretary Joseph E. Pogue of the State Fair expresses special pleasure at the completion of what he considers a most advantageous Carolina circuit of fairs now that the State fair is no longer allied with the Virginia court.

The State fair at Raleigh, under the new schedule and alliance retains its old lucky dates, October 16th to 21st. The fairs of the Carolina circuit in their order are Wilkesboro, Winston-Salem, Greensboro, Raleigh, Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta. W. N. Reynolds, of Winston-Salem is president of the Carolina circuit.

The Universal Machine Co. of Charlotte, is chartered with $100,000 capital by E. A. Cole, E. W. Cole, the latter of Richmond, and others as incorporators. Other charters are to the Goldstein Co., Dunn, capital $20,000 by Chas. Goldstein and others, and the Ward Lumber Co., of Catesville, capital $10,000 by B. H. Ward and others.

Frank Hinton, a negro carpenter, is is in a critical condition at St. Agnes hospital here from injuries sustained in the falling of a defective scaffold at the municipal and auditorium building here. Two other negro workmen, Thomas Winton and Will Fair, were also painfully injured. Frank Hinton has a fractured skull and injury in his back as the most serious.

The city of Raleigh wins the damage suit pending in the Superior Court here in which Lucy Johnson demanded $5,000 damages for injuries through falling into an excavation on South Bloodworth street.

LORIMER ITEM STRUCK OUT.

Will Not Reimburse Him for Expenses in Defending His Title.

Washington, March 3.—An item to reimburse Senator Lorimer for expenses in defending his title to his seat was struck out of the general deficiency bill by the Senate tonight on motion of Senator Lorimer himself.

Even after Mr. Lorimer had made his motion several senators protested against the item ever having been put in the bill. Senators Culberson, Clarke, of Arkansas, and Borah, the former two with much heat, suggested that some members of the Committee on Appropriations had not known that the item was in the bill.

Just before the reading clerk reached the item in the bill, Senator Lorimer arose:

"The next item in the bill," he said, "provides for my reimbursement in defending my right to a seat in this chamber. The expenses were heavy, of course, and were incurred very unjustly. But I feel I cannot permit this item to be passed upon by the Senate and therefore I ask that this item, which is an amendment to the House bill, be not agreed to."

Senators Culberson and Overman were on their feet in an instant. Both are members of the appropriations committee and both said they knew nothing of the appropriation. In response to the demands to know how the item got in the bill, Chairman Hale said it had been put in in the usual way, following the custom of reimbursing members and senators in contested election cases.

Senator Borah and Clarke, of Arkansas, demanded to know upon what facts the committee had based the proposed reimbursement. Mr. Hale said the matter was offered in committee and put into the bill.

"But if senators have not confidence in their committee," he said, "the committee is perfectly willing to accept their censure."

The flurry which served to show that much of the bitterness engendered by the Lorimer case still exists, soon was over and the item formally was dropped from the bill.

HOOKWORM FIGHT SUCCESS.

Physicians Report Satisfactory Progress at Virginia Conference.

Richmond, Va., March 3.—Entirely satisfactory reports of progress in the fight against hookworm in Virginai were made at a conference here today of physicians who are conducting the campaign.

Marked improvement has taken place throughout the hookworm area. As fast as one county is cleaned up, the work of eradicating is carried to another.

Those victims of the disease who have taken the treatment provided show great improvement in both psysical and mental energies.

WILSON JAIL GUARDED.

Every Precaution to Hold West and His Gang.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Wilson, N. C., March 3.—Fearing a possible escape of the West gang from jail here prior to trial next week, the jail is now being guarded each night by details from the Wilson Light Infantry. Mebane, alias Brodie, the last of the gang captured, was identified today by a man whom he held up with a pistol and robbed on the evening Deputy Mumford was murdered.

"A NEVOUS WRECK."

"My daughter is rapidly becoming a nervous wreck," said an anxius father to a friend who happened to be a druggist,—"she has no appetite, is run-down, weak, takes no interest in anything, and we cannot find anything that helps her."

"Why don't you give her Vinol"—said the druggist—"it is not a secret nostrum, just a simple and delicious cod liver and iron tonic—and the best strength creator and general all round tonic we have ever sold in our store. Take a bottle home and try it. We'll return your money if it does not help her."

Within ten days the father came back for another bottle of Vinol, saying that he had never seen such a change in a girl in his life, and he felt sure one more bottle of Vinol would restore her to her normal condition."

Such cases as the above are constantly coming to our attention, and we ask every run-down, nervous, debilitated, aged or weak person in this vicinity, and every person suffering from a chronic cough, cold, or bronchial trouble to try a bottle of Vinol on the same terms as above.—Robt. R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

EASILY DECIDED

This Question Should be Answered Easily by Wilmington People.

Which is wiser—to have confidence in the opinions of your fellow-citizens, of people you know, or depend on statements made by utter strangers residing in far-away places? Read the following:

J. F. Hansley, 406 Walnut St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "My back and kidneys troubled me a great deal and I think it was due to my being on my feet so much. I suffered from dull, dragging backaches and I could not stoop without having sharp twinges in my loins. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and there was sediment in them. Some time ago when I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box from Bellamy's Drug Store and in a few days after I began their use, my pains and aches disappeared. I have felt so much better in every way since using Doan's Kidney Pills that I have no hesitation in recommending them." (Statement given February 25, 1908.)

No Trouble Since.

On December 27, 1910, Mr. Hansley said: "I have had no occasion to use any kidney medicine since I took Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago and I am glad to say that they brought me lasting benefit. You are welcome to continue publishing my former statement."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC., Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Saturday, March 4, 1911.

Some towns are now so upish they will become indignant if one should be asked to be shown Main street.

"Stay on the farm," urges the Greensboro Daily News. How about it if the farm won't stay with you?

Says a newspaper headline, "Senator Lorimer Retains His Seat." Wonder how many Senators he retained?

A lady is not necessarily a conductor because she insists that her old man should put on brakes occasionally.

If there is anything for which we can afford to forgive other towns it is because they would like to be Wilmington.

Congressman Webb is given credit for saving Charlotte's mint. No doubt Charlotte men have looked out for themselves in saving something else to go with the mint.

Some mean old thing has said "a woman will walk a mile to see a $100 hat." That's nothing. We've known men who would walk two miles to get a 15 cent "night cap."

A man who died in the Middle West a few days ago founded 156 daily and weekly papers during his lifetime. He will now give his delinquent subscribers a rest but they don't deserve it.

The Senate vote of 46 to 40 in declaring Senator Lorimer entitled to his seat, looks so much like a "dog fall" the Senator need not feel any ways exultant over the magnitude of his "exoneration."

During the direct primary election in Chicago last Tuesday, professors and students of the University of Chicago went out and watched the election. Doubtless they learned something they didn't know before.

A South Dakota man who ate alfalfa for two weeks, claims that he gained ten pounds of flesh in that time. Probably Nebuchadnezzar knew what he was about when he caused so much talk because he ate grass.

The Congress to be elected next year will have 441 members instead of 391 as at present. This will be an increase of 50. Will you be one of them? Or, hove you got money enough to want to try to go to Congress?

"Love your job," urges a writer on social economy. Most men love their job for what they can get out of it and if the job doesn't pay it will have a truant lover who will neglect it and probably elope with another job.

A New York paper suggests to William F. Sheehan that he should consent for the Democratic party of New York to select the United States Senator. It will first have to convince Col. Sheehan that Charlie Murphy is not the Democratic party.

Miss Daisy Ogden has been made general passenger agent of the Moline, Rock Island & Davenport Railroad. A Virginia lady is building a twenty mile railroad, and so it is that ladies are getting to be railroaders, even though they must know that "trains" are not fashionable.

Since the Rockingham Post installed that Linotype machine and added other newspaper making equipment, the paper is a model of neatness and is exceedingly attractive mechanically and excellent editorially. It makes one feel like carrying it about in his pocket. Rockingham has a right to be proud of its paper and it is to be congratulated upon having an editor who is giving the town one so excellent in every respect as the Post.

STATE PUBLICITY BUREAU.

Competition in publicity is going to be strong from now on and we fear that Wilmington, and even North Carolina, publicity has been so long delayed that we will have to go into the field against many enterprising States and communities which are broadcasting the real publicity that is made to attract attention. As we have started in late—that is, if we have started—we will be up against expert writers who have been engaged by many cities, and even some States, to let the world know of their communities and their advantages and possibilities. North Carolina has this advantage, however, that her resources are unequalled, while Wilmington can yet make a bid for settlers and industries on claims that no other city can put forward and which very few can even approach.

However, this is the publicity era—the time when publicity of the entertaining and catchy kind is going to be used all over the country. Some North Carolina towns have waked up to it, and, while we could mention some of them that are getting busy, we have only to call attention to the fact that our sister Cape Fear City of Feyetteville has gone at it right. The Fayetteville Chamber of Commerce has employed an experienced newspaper man to act as its secretary and publicity man. He is Mr. Z. P. Smith, lately editor of the Greensboro Daily News, and The Star does not hesitate to congratulate that city upon its selection of a man who will surely be on the job. Mr. Smith is an experienced writer, is a man of fine comprehension, is alive to the purposes for which his talents have been engaged, and we are confident that Fayetteville will find that he can deliver the goods. We also predict that Fayetteville will get results and that the employment of a capable publicity man will be a good investment for that growing and splendid region.

Cities are advertising, States are advertising, and there has been some talk during the session of the General Assembly about advertising the resources of North Carolina. What the Legislature did about it, if anything, we do not know, but it has come about that States are doing publicity work as well as cities. Kansas has a fine system of publicity and Nebraska has followed suit. What is said by the Omaha World-Herald on this matter is of no special concern in North Carolina, but will be interesting from the fact that it shows what other States are doing. Says the Nebraska paper:

"We are glad that Gov. Aldrich has come to the front in advocacy of a modest appropriation of $25,000 for a State bureau or departement of publicity. The Omaha Ad and Commercial clubs and commercial bodies throughout the State that are asking for the creation of such a bureau are giving the legislature an opportunity to perform a valuable service to the State. We measure our words when we say we believe Nebraska to be the poorest advertised State west of the Alleghenies. Kansas gets 100 words of advertising where Nebraska gets one. Yet Nebraska is as good a State as Kansas, in fact, a better State and more desirable State to live in. It has more opportunities to offer. It has, in fact, about everything that is necessary to send it forward to a glorious future—except advertising. It is a humiliating fact that the daily newspapers of the country, especially the Chicago and New York papers, pay far more attention to Kansas and Kansas affairs than they do to Nebraska, and will record comparatively trifling events, if they happen in Kansas, while completely ignoring events of much greater importance that would carry a Nebraska date line. And it is all Nebraska's fault. Kansas has advertised intelligently, persistently, generously, for a quarter of a century. It has tried and kept on trying to attract attention, and it has succeeded. Nebraska, on the other hand, has grown by main strength and awkwardness and the pitying help of providence. It has done so little for itself rationally and premeditatedly, in the way of attracting attention, investment and immigration, that little is hardly worth speaking of. The creation of a State development and publicity bureau is the fist step of the way out."

The above is just a pointer which shows the activity now manifest in attracting settlers and capital. It might serve to put us on to the fact that it is our time to move.

THE TOWN OF RED SPRINGS.

It fell to the lot of this adjunct of The Star to be the first newspaper man ever to visit and write up Red Springs, then not even a village and with one or two small stores hardly worthy of the name. We went there to write something about the wonderful mineral springs in that then isolated locality, but the trip opened our eyes to the possibilities of the community as a lumber manufacturing center, as a splendid agricultural region, and as a delightful and advantageous locality for residence and business purposes. We predicted that Red Springs would come to the front, and so it did.

Now Red Springs is a flourishing and attractive town with pretty streets lined with handsome business buildings and beautiful homes. Now the town has many fine stores, a live newspaper, a thriving bank, several flourishing industries, a splendid female college, and other schools that would do credit to any town. It is there that is located the Southern Presbyterian College and Conservatory of Music, now one of the South's leading educational institutions, conducted on a high plane for the education of the girls of this part of the growing South. The curriculum of the college gives it a high standard and the institution is conducted on the most modern lines by a faculty conspicuous for its ability and training qualifications. No Southern college has grown so rapidly in reputation and influence and it is largely due to the widely acknowledged educational and administrative capacity of its able president, the Rev. C. G. Vandell, D. D.

The above is only a glimpse of the modern Red Springs, but the enterprising Red Springs Citizen this week gives us an elaborate concept of the progressive and splendid town that now occupies a locality once surrounded by the most magnificent long-leaf pine forest we ever beheld. Not 20 years ago the surrounding country was covered with majestic pines, the vast solitude of which was only disturbed by the soughing of the wind through their lofty tops, reminding one very much of the roar of the ocean. The voice of the wild gobbler awoke the echoes and the huntsman found throughout the country a multitude of deer and other wild game.

The 1911 view is vastly different. The enterprising lumbermen turned the forests into wealth and the peculiarly valuable lands have been developed into some of the best farms to be seen in this unexcelled agricultural region. The indifferent, rambling hamlet has evoluted into a lovely modern town, built and inhabited by as fine a lot of people as can be boasted of in the entire country. Indeed, the transformation is such a revelation we can hardly resist the temptation to say more about this delightful and aspiring town, but our only purpose here was to speak of the trade and industrial edition of the Red Springs Citizen and to commend the enterprise of Editor R. B. Branch for the superior and thorough manner in which he has presented the attractions, advantages and achievements of his town.

The Citizen on Friday issued 16 pages and it contained an illustrated and splendidly written description of Red Springs as it flourishes today. It is a neat and altogether attractive publication and it cannot fail to be of immense value to the town. It tells all about Red Springs, and it cannot fail to be noted that the residences illustrated indicate that it is indeed a town of veritably beautiful and lovely homes. Red Springs is a thriving business and trade center and possesses many attractions, advantages and possibilities, all of which are so fulsomely portrayed in Editor Branch's paper that only mere mention of it is necessary here.

The Star congratulates Editor Branch upon his enterprise and commends the public spirited and enterprising people of Red Springs for enabling him to produce such a highly creditable showing for their splendid town.

One of the most attractive features of a "city beautiful" is its street lighting. Wilmington's white light district continues to elicit the admiration of all visitors. It makes Wilmingtonians think they are living somewhere. By the way, well lighted residences also contribute to the beauty of a city. Dark houses make gloomy inmates.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The House also extracted the teeth from the anti-club loc er bill.—Durham Herald.

Without some sort of an explanation one naturally wonders what is meant by the bill's being introduced in the Legislature prohibiting the sale of whiskey in certain sections of the State.—Durham Herald.

In Canada, we are told, when a law is passed it's a law and it's obeyed. What a terrible tyranny it must be to live under a government where citizens with means cannot hire lawyers to prove that the law is oppressive, confiscatory and unconstitutional.—Milwaukee Journal.

The Greater Charlotte Club is getting in trim to do more business for Charlotte than it has ever accomplished before. It has always lived up to its opportunities and facilities, and now with a much larger membership than ever before, and consequently more financial resources, and with greater opportunities to be grasped, its value to the city is inestimable.—Charlotte Chronicle.

We regret that the Senate saw fit to kill the Torrens land title bill. There seems to be a general demand all over the State for this system of registering land titles. It is in fact the one bill which has been before the Legislature, except the anti-near-beer bill and the administration building bill, for which there has been any general demand. The Legislators have only put off the day of its passage, for the demand will be so insistent two years from now that it will have to be passed.—Raleigh Times.

Some people cannot understand why Congressman Godwin has so many friends amongst the people of his district anent the politicians. The reason is this. No matter whom, or why or what concerning, any person high or low in this district man address him at Washington, that same person is sure of a kind, business-like reply with an expressed willingness to do anything further he can with the matter in hand. This kind of attention is not just before a convention, but it is an all-the-term business with him.—Bladen County News.

A local story in The Chronicle today tells of the establishment of a tremendous baking plant in Charlotte, the bakery to have a capacity of 40,000 loaves a day and being designed not only to supply the local trade but to ship bread to the other cities and towns in the piedmont section of the Carolinas. When the interurban is put in operation people in the neighboring towns will be able to get their bread from Cahrlotte and serve it on the table before it has time to cool. This is just a straw which shows which way the wind is blowing. As The Chronicle has stated before Charlotte will be the center and headquarters for all of the piedmont section of the Carolinas for almost everything within a short while after the interurban is completed.—Charlotte Chronicle.

We were a little too hasty to congratulate in our local columns former Solicitor Moses Harshaw on his good fortune in being promised the nice office of assistant district attorney by President Taft. We thought that settled the matter. But it was only a signal for North Carolina Republicans to open up the mud batteries on the genial and brilliant Caldwell man. They have written the dirtiest kind of letters to the Attorney General, and District Attorney Holton backed them up with the charges in person. It seems that the President's promises amount to nothing unless approved by Wickersham. Wickersham in North Carolina affairs is a bigger man than old Taft, and Holton is bigger than Wickersham. Mose Harshaw has been knocked completely out. — Newton Enterprise.

The South should be greatly encouraged by the increasing demand for pork and the high prices for the product of the pen. In Louisiana especially farmers are embarking in hog raising on a large scale and coincidently there is to be a big increase in peanut growing. Louisiana last year sold outside the State $100,000 worth of peanuts. This year it is planned to double the crop and use it all at home. The peanut is one of the best hog fatteners known, and peanut-fed pork is said to be a delicacy not to be despised. New England farmers have been slower to realize the opportunities for profit in hog raising, but some have seen the light and are going into the business in a large, intelligent way. Yet New England cannot compete with Virginia and other Southern States. The demand for hog products is one that will increase year by year and Virginia can add greatly to its annual income by a business-like observance of this demand.—Norfolk Landmark.

A LIVING MONUMENT

Letter from Mrs. Vaughan, of Raleigh, Regarding Results She Obtained by Following Sister's Suggestion.

Raleigh, N. C.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Annie Vaughan writes: "I was sick and worn-out, almost unto death. I suffered a great deal with stiffness, and sore spots all over. When I would lie down, it was an effort to get up. My sister finally persuaded me to try Cardui. Before long, I was well and strong.

I cannot find words to express my deep gratitude for Cardui, for I sincerely believe it saved my life. Your remedy is just the thing for broken-down women. I wish every sufferer could know of Cardui, for I believe it will do for them what it did for me.

I regard myself as a living monument to its efficacy. I can't say too much for it. I recommend Cardui to all sick and run-down women."

We have thousands of such letters, and more are arriving every day.

For more than 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings, and building weak women up to health and strength.

BIG PALMER SUIT TAKEN UP

Action Against Brunswick Tug Boat Company to Recover for Loss of Vessel on Lookout Shoals. Attend From Here.

The libel brought by the owners of the schooner Marie Palmer, which was lost last Winter on Lookout shoals, against Messrs. Coney & Parker, owners of the tug Coney, of Brunswick, Ga., asking damages of $100,000, was called in the Federal court at Savannah this week and is being attended by several Wilmington men as witnesses.

The action was brought some time ago, the owners of the wrecked vessel contending that the tug ran the schooner ashore, after warning by the master of the vessel that they were taking the wrong course. The warning they contend was unheeded and as a consequence the schooner was lost.

The Marie Palmer, it will be recalled, was one of the largest four-masters on the coast, being a vessel of over 1,000 tons net register. She was bound from New York to Savannah when she met with disaster and at that time was in tow of the tug Coney, which was towing her from Cape Lookout to her destination. The big suit to recover for the loss of the vessel has been attracting great interest in marine circles throughout the country and owing to the fact that a number of important points of law are involved, the outcome is anxiously awaited.

Witnesses from Wilmington in Savannah this week are Capt. Edgar D. Williams, harbor master; Capt. W. A. Sanders, master of the tug Blanche; Capt. J. S. Williams, of the Diamond Steamboat & Wrecking Company, and Capt. L. J. Pepper, pilot, of Southport.

After the Palmer went ashore one of the owners of the vessel came to Wilmington and made arrangements with the Diamond Steamboat & Wrecking Co., to make an attempt to float her, but the work was delayed on account of extremely rough weather and she went to pieces during this time. It will be hard fought litigation, both sides disclaiming responsibility for the loss of the vessel. The wreck of the Palmer was seen by those from Wilmington who are appearing as witnesses in the case. It will be recalled that a picture of the big schooner as she lay stranded on the shoals appeared in Shipping Illustrated, a New York publication, mention of which was made in the Star.

WAIVED EXAMINATION.

Aged Man Charged With Distilling Held for Federal Court.

When the case against J. W. Ward, the aged white man of Brunswick county, arrested last week on the charge of illicit distilling, was called for preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner George Harriss yesterday afternoon, the defendant, through his counsel, waived examination and was bound over to the next term of United States District Court in this city. In default of $500 bond the defendant was remanded to jail. Ward has retained an array of counsel to defend him, having engaged Wm. J. Bellamy, L. Clayton Grant and Walter P. Gafford, Esqs., who will make a vigorous effort to clear their client of any connection with the distillery found on his land and only a short distance from his house by revenue officers last week. It will be recalled that the defendant contends that although the "still" was on his place, that he had no connection with the operation of the plant.

MEN'S MEETING TOMORROW.

Rev. C. F. Whitlock Will be the Speaker at Y. M. C. A. Service.

Rev. C. F. Whitlock, pastor of Brookly Baptist church, will be the speaker at the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock. His subject will be "Opening the Eyes of Young Men." The sermon will be especially to men and those who attend may expect to hear something to their interest and benefit. The music will be furnished by the Brooklyn Baptist church orchestra. All men of the city are cordially invited to attend the meeting.

Pat. Houston Found Guilty.

It was stated in The Star a few days ago that Pat. Houston, of this city, who was tried in the Court of General Sessions at Darlington, S. C., for assault with intent to kill, was found not guilty of the charge. The information given this paper was not correct as the following from this week's issue of the Darlington News and Press shows that he was convicted: "The first trial of the term was the case of the State vs. Houston, charged with assault and battery with intent to kill. This was the case in which Murdock Outlaw was assaulted and received a sever wound at the hands of Houston, in the latter's place of business. The defendant was represented by Attorney Bellamy, of Wilmington, who was in town during the week to look after Houston's interest. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, but recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the court. Judge Shipp passed sentence of $50 or fifty days, and later reduced the fine, which was paid."

COMMISSIONERS OF STREETS

Call for Bids for Paving Sixth, from Campbell to Brunswick Streets, Which Includes Approaches to Bridge.

A special meeting of the Commissioners of Streets was held yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with Chairman Louis Belden presiding and Commissioners Worth, Heyer and Brady and City Engineer Humphreys and Clerk Gause in attendance. It was called for the purpose of considering the matter of advertising for bids for paving the approaches to the bridge to be erected over the Coast Line tracks at Sixth street.

After discussing the matter it was decided to call for bids on the bridge; that is, Sixth street, from the north side of Campbell to the south side of Brunswick street. The street is to be paved with five-inch brick. The engineer was authorized to advertise for bids which will be opened in about ten days.

It was stated at the meeting that the material for the contsruction of the bridge over the Coast Line tracks at Sixth street is expected to arrive in a short time. A letter received by the city engineer a few days ago was to the effect that the first shipment would leave the factory the latter part of last week.

When the commissioners decided that it would be cheaper in the long run to pave Sixth street from Campbell to Brunswick, which includes the approaches to the bridge, than to pave just the approaches and then later, when the permanent street work is undertaken in earnest, to pave the remaining short strip on each side, Chairman Belden inquired if it would not have to be taken up when the Water and Sewerage Commission begins work on the long promised new sewerage system. He was informed that the small sewer pipes that would be required in that section could be laid under the sidewalk. This brought up an informal talk relative to the prospects of a new system any time in the near future, and some of those present said that they did not believe Wilmington would have a new sewerage plant within the next 20 years.

Meeting Failed to Materialize.

The special meeting of the Board of Aldermen announced to be held at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon to consider the proposed screen ordinance did not materialize, and therefore the measure will be given consideration at the regular monthly meeting of the Board Monday night. It is understood that an ordinance has been drafted that will meet the approval of a majority of the members of the board and will remedy the evil complained of. It is understood that the reason the meeting was not held yesterday was because no call had been issued. Three aldermen signed a petition Thursday asking that the Mayor call a special meeting yesterday afternoon, but they neglected to present the petition to the Mayor until yesterday morning, when a call could not be issued for a meeting in the afternoon owing to a resolution adopted recently requiring that all the aldermen be given at least 12 hours notice of a meeting.

While here he made a host of friends and they have most cordially welcomed him during his brief business trip to the city. He is now in the lumber business in Baltimore and is in Wilmington on business with lumber manufacturers.

IN MEMORIAM.

On the morning of February 21st, 1911, the Angel of Death entered the home of B. K. and Clyde Merritt and bore from their family circle little Herbert, aged two years. Only a few days' sickness with croup gave them warning that they must give the little one back to the One that gave it. Although father and mother loved it dearly, God loved it most and took it to a better world before it knew any sin or sorrow. Do not weep, dear mother, for little Herbert is safe in the arms of Jesus, safe on his gentle breast. A FRIEND.

"GENERAL CLEAN-UP WEEK"

Mayor MacRae Issues Proclamation Urging all Citizens to Co-Operate in Plans of the Civic League —Buttons.

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION.

By request of the Civic League of Wilmington, the Mayor and the Board of Aldermen have ordered that the week beginning March 12th be and is hereby declared "A General Clean-Up Week." During this entire week and the week following, each citizen and house holder is requested to clean up his yard, cut the grass upon the premises, and deposit all trash at the curbstone.

The street cleaning department will remove all rubbish and trash beyond the city limits, and dispose of same by burning. The city will be divided into three sections—Brooklyn being cleaned Monday and Tuesday; between Red Cross and Castle on Wednesday and Thursday, and south of Castle street being cleaned Friday and Saturday.

WALTER G. MacRAE, Mayor.

Mayor MacRae issued the above proclamation yesterday at the instance of Mr. Adam Empie, president of the Wilmington Civic League, and it is hoped that the citizens generally will act upon the suggestion contained therein, as Wilmington would then probably be the cleanest city in the State and this would be a long step toward civic improvement. A similar campaign was conducted last year, though rather late in the season, under the direction of Alderman Fred Bonitz, chairman of the streets and wharves committee, and the co-operation given him at that time by the people of the city encourages the belief that there will be a ready response from all sections of the city this year. Much more good may be accomplished now than was possible last year, when Summer had already been ushered in, and those who would have a healthier and cleaner Wilmington cannot do other than carry out the suggestions in the Mayor's proclamation.

Mr. Bonitz, who is at the head of the street cleaning and garbage departments of the city, will do everything he can to aid in the efforts to clean up the city in the two weeks beginning March 12th. It has been stated that the regular city force will be increased for this period in order to haul off all the trash which the citizens will gather up from their premises and place on the curbstone for the carts. The health department will also give its support to the movement and the health officers, on their regular rounds, will call attention of the citizens to the fact that they should have a hand in this general cleaning up. In order to make the movement the success it should be there must be a hearty co-operation on the part of every citizen, otherwise there will be some premises that will have no more than the usual Spring cleaning.

The campaign for the "general clean-up week" will be formally inaugurated next Wednesday evening, when the citizens of Wilmington will have the rare privilege of hearing a lecture by Mr. J. Horace McFarland, president of the American Civic Association, who comes here under the auspices of the civic committee of Sorosis. The lecture will be in the auditorium of the High School building. On Sunday, March 12th, the ministers will call attention to the importance of all citizens observing the "general clean-up week."

One thousand of the "W. C. L." buttons will be placed among citizens of Wilmington. The buttons are given as a receipt for membership fee in the Wilmington Civic League. The membership fee is only $1 and there is every reason to believe that there can be found one thousand people who are interested in their city to this extent, if no more. Mr. H. deW. Rapalje, who has long been interested in civic affairs, but became a member of the league only Thursday night, told President Empie yesterday that he would see that one thousand buttons are distributed among the people of the city. Business men will be called upon to sell these buttons to business men. It is right and proper that the business men should be called upon not only to join the league, but to aid in securing additional members, for the business men will share and share largely in the benefits which will accrue to the city through the success of the plans of the league.

The Recorder's Court.

In the Recorder's court yesterday morning Alex. Harrison, a negro youth, was tried on the charge of carrying a concealed weapon, to-wit: a pistol, which was found on his person when arrested late Thursday night. The youth was given three months on the county farm. Hazel Lewis, a denizen of the underworld, was tried on the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. She was tried on a similar charge a few days ago when judgment was suspended on condition that she leave the city. Inasmuch as she did not comply with her agreement to cast her lot in another town, the Recorder sentenced her to 30 days on the county farm in each case.

Dr. Geo. C. Worth to Speak.

At the morning service at the First Presbyterian Church tomorrow, Dr. Geo. C. Worth will make a report to the church, of which he is an elder, on his work as a missionary in China. Dr. and Mrs. Worth were recently welcomed home after a numbers of years spent in the foreign field.

Mr. Joe McAnnalian.

Will sing "Every Little Movement". Grand Theatre today. **

A BIG PUBLICITY CAMPAIGN

Amendment to Proposed New Charter Would Give Authority to Make Appropriation for Advertising Purposes.

In line with other live and progressive cities North and South, a movement has been started among wide-awake business men to secure an amendment to the proposed new city charter authorizing the city officials to expend annually a sum not exceeding $10,000 for properly advertising the advantages and possibilities of Wilmington. Telegrams have been sent to both Senator Bellamy and Representative Kellum asking them to secure the adoption of such an amendment, which, it is believed, will meet with the approval of a majority of the business men of the city.

Municipal advertising is by no means an experiment. It has been a great success and aided materially in building up many cities in the North, South and West, particularly the West. Savannah, Ga., recently decided to expend $20,000 a year for advertising that city, $10,000 of the amount being secured from the municipality and the remainder was raised by a canvass of the business men, and it is understood that Charleston, S. C., has decided upon a similar campaign for that city. Other large cities of the South have also recently entered upon an advertising campaign with most successful results. It is believed that judicious advertising of Wilmington, its natural advantages and tremendous possibilities, will pay handsome returns on the money thus expended. The matter has been talked among the business men for some time and recently it was mentioned at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, where the proposition seemed to meet with much favor. A few days ago a number of business men got together and decided that an amendment to the new charter allowing the city officials to make expenditures for advertising would be a wise thing and most likely result in a more rapid development of the city. Telegrams were then sent urging the Senator and Representative to use their best efforts to have such provision incorporated in the proposed new charter. The business men have the assurance of the support of the representatives.

Should the amendment be adopted and the city officials decide to exercise this authority, the plan of advertising will then be determined upon by them. A number of plans have already been suggested, some of which would probably bring splendid results.

The business men were gratified to note yesterday that the House had adopted the bill providing for an investigation of dismemberment of the A. & Y. railroad, and telegrams were sent yesterday and last night to Senator Bellamy and Representative Kellum urging them to do their utmost in securing favorable action in the Senate.

MR. FRANCIS MOORE DEAD.

Prominent Citizen of Phoenix Passed Away Yesterday Morning.

Friends in Wilmington learned with sincere regret of the death of Mr. Francis M. Moore, a prominent and highly esteemed citizen of Phoenix, which occurred at his home there yesterday morning, after an illness extending over a period of about two years. Mr. Moore was about 70 years old and is survived by his wife and several children, among these being Dr. Moore, of Cronly, and Mrs. Robbins, of Phoenix, who have the sympathy of a great many friends in Wilmington. For many years Mr. Moore was engaged in the mercantile business at Navassa and owned large rice plantations. He was one of the best known and most substantial citizens of that community. He was for many years a consistent member of the Phoenix Presbyterian Church. The funeral services will be held at the Phoenix graveyard at 10 o'clock this morning, conducted by Rev. J. S. Crowley, of Immanuel Presbyterian Church, of this city.

CATHERINE KENNEDY HOME.

General Appeal to Public for Support of Most Worthy Charity.

The time has come in the history of the Catherine Kennedy Home when a general appeal for help is necessary. The Home has been in existence nineteen years and excepting asking for members, and trying at one time to secure yearly pledges, (the attempt being a failure), we have never made a call for help to maintain the Home until now. The cost of keeping up a house with twenty rooms is considerable, and our little income has felt the strain of the increased cost of living to a great degree.

There is need at this time for quite an outlay; the principal items being new floor all over the basement, and enclosing the back piazza, up and down, including the windows necessary for air in Summer and light in Winter. It is quite an ordeal for the old ladies to face the wind from the north and west every time they bring in their wood, and passing through the cold piazzas is the only means of access to the bath rooms also. There is not a strong woman in the house; two are paralyzed and are obliged to have attendants, and enclosing the piazzas would help greatly towards increasing comfort, and minimizing the danger of colds, and possibly pneumonia.

It is hardly necessary to say that the Home is not denominational, but the great number of strangers in our midst may not be aware of the fact. There are four Presbyterians, two Baptists, two Episcopalians and four Methodists. When the late Mr. P. K. Dickinson gave ten shares of Wilmington & Weldon Railroad stock to the Ladies' Benevolent Society about 55 years ago, ne little dreamed that this amount, now A. C. L. stock, would in succeeding years be nearly the sole support of a Home for old ladies of refinement, who because of their infirmities, could not make a living for themselves. Surely he builded wisely and many in the years to come will revere his memory.

In this connection it is well to mention also, the bequest of the late Mr. James Walker, he having left $5,000 in his will to the Home, to be kept always at interest. These gifts form the means of support of the institution which we have been able to accomplish in a modest way, but we cannot enlarge the work, or make changes that at times are necessary. There is a great deal more we would like to say, but it is not our object to make this article too long, and so we hope it is only a mere form to ask a thousand people in this community to give us one dollar apiece in the furtherance of our plans for the comfort and convenience of the old ladies of the Catherine Kennedy Home. The institution should stand on its own merits, and the fact that we have never made a general appeal to the public since we purchased the present site, is worthy of consideration and attention, and we believe that our appeal will meet with a liberal response from this generous community.

FIRE LAST NIGHT.

Globe Baking Company Suffers Considerable Damage—Deliveries.

The Globe Baking Co., which only recently began business at 809 North Fourth street, suffered the loss of its bakery by a fire which started last night shortly after 7 o'clock, entailing a loss of about $1.000 on the company and $150 or $200 damage to the building, which is owned by Mrs. C. H. Ganzer. The baking company carried insurance of $600. The Fire Department responded to an alarm but the fire had already gained so much headway that it was impossible to save the bakery.

Mr. J. E. Boylan, manager of the bakery, announces that it will be impossible to make deliveries as usual today, but that the Globe will be doing business as usual on Monday. The Globe Baking Co., is one of Wilmington's newest enterprises and it is to be regretted that it has thus suffered so early in what promises to be a most profitable business career.

DELGADO BIBLE CLASS ENTERTAINED LAST NIGHT.

The Bible Class of the Sunday School of the Delgado Presbyterian Church gave a most enjoyable entertainment in the kindergarten building last night. There was a large attendance and every one present spent a delightful evening. Musical selections were rendered by Mr. Hunt, pianist; Mr. Chas. Shipper, cornetist, and Mr. Ben Biggs, violinist, and short talks were made by Messrs. Andrew J. Howell, J. E. Jones, president of the class, and Mr. Allen, teacher. One of the most enjoyable features was an old-fashioned "spelling bee" and the words were taken from the old "Blue Back" speller. With the service of refreshments the evening's pleasing entertainment came to a close.

MOCK WEDDING CEREMONY AT BOYS' BRIGADE ARMORY.

The mock marriage ceremony at the Boys' Brigade armory last night for the benefit of Fifth Street M. E. Church, was not only a delightful social success, but quite a tidy sum was realized from the proceeds. The bride was Mr. J. J. Fowler, Jr., as Miss Short, and the gallant groom was Mr. Eugene Dixon, as Mr. Long. The ushers were Messrs. Berry, Wilkerson and Durant, while Mr. Elmer was maid of honor and Mr. Hiram King was best man. The bridesmaids were Messrs. Gardner, Pate and Palmgren. Mr. Tim Pridgen acted as the "father" and gave the bride away, while "Dr." Wilbur Dosher officiated as the dignified clergyman. Miss Hattie Gardner delightfully played the wedding marches. During the evening there was a select programme of music, etc., including bass solo by Mr. Harold Pate, reading by Miss Annie Futch and selections by the orchestra. Refreshments were served and the several hundred persons who attended were delighted with the entertainment.

A recent issue of the Charlotte News: "The matinee performance yesterday afternoon of "The Little Princess" was another of the decided successes of the present theatrical season. It was given for the benefit of the Humane Society as was the first performance and a good crowd saw the entertainment. All of the characters were more familiar with their lines than at the first show and all of them did better on this occasion. Miss Millersham and Mr. Baxtresser were particularly good as was Miss May Cross. In their musical numbers they were generously applauded. To Mrs. H. H. Donohoo is the greatest credit due for the general excellence of the performances here and the goodly sum of money realized for the benefit of the Humane Society. While the exact figures have not been given out it is known that the amount was large and all of the patronesses are delighted and enthusiastic in their praise of the promoters. As has been said before Mrs. Donohoo is a remarkable instructor and decidedly clever woman. She is a delightful instructor, a fine musician and her ability to handle children is wonderful. Mr. Donohoo handles the business end of the engagements and is as efficient in his line as Mrs. Donohoo is in hers. They go from here to Florence for a short rest and from there to Wilmington where they will get up the entertainment for the Wilmingtonians."

TWO SPLENDID GAMES.

Basketball at the Boys' Brigade Gymnasium Last Night.

After an interruption of two weeks, the second series of basketball games for the handsome Honnet trophy was resumed in the gymnasium of the Boys' Brigade last night, when two closely contested and exciting games were played. The contest between the Seminoles and the Stags resulted in a victory for the latter, the score being 24 to 19. The Lions and Kangaroos finished the game with a tie and it was necessary to prolong the contest until one or the other succeeded in rolling up two additional points, the final score being 18 to 16 in favor of the Kangaroos. There was some especially fine playing during this contest. The games were witnessed by a large number of spectators and there was much enthusiasm.

The regular business meeting of the Boys' Brigade will be held Monday evening and all members are urged to be present. The Bible Class meets at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Chas. Dushan, secretary of the Brigade, will take members of the Company C. for an outing at Winter Park today, leaving the city this morning at 10 o'clock and returning in the afternoon.

FIFTH DISTRICT CASES.

Hearing of Argument in Supreme Court Next Week—Holly.

Fifth district cases will be heard on appeal in the Supreme Court at Raleigh beginning Tuesday of next week, these embracing a number of general interest from Wilmington. Among the number is that of Gregg against the City of Wilmington and Jas. F. Woolvin, in which the jury awarded the plaintiff $7,000 against the city, while the others are Standard Supply Co., against Finch & Person; Eddie Bryan against the Hilton Lumber Co., in which the jury gave $7,766 damages; Chas. S. Riley & Co., against W. T. Sears and LaFayette King against the A. C. L.

The case against J. C. Holly under sentence to be electrocuted, will not come up until the September Court. Solicitor Shaw was in the city yesterday and stated that thus far he had not been able to prepare his case on appeal for hearing at this term, therefore, the appeal will result in a stay of execution of the sentence in April until the Fall term of the Supreme Court in September.

The team captained by K. Davis will be composed of K. Davis, Lewis, LeGwin, Cleapor and McKoy, while the other team will be represented by N. Davis, captain; Taylor, LeMoyne, Cavanaugh, Boone and Burnett.

There will be two games between teams in the senior league, beginning at 8:15 o'clock, when the Seminoles will take chances with the Athletics. The second game will be between the Pirates and Actives.

A copy of the commission form of government bill as it was adopted by the General Assembly has not been received here, but a certified copy is expected here within the next few days.

Great Silk Sale at Rehder's.

An attractive announcement elsewhere in today's paper will be found of interest to the ladies of the city and adjoining country. The firm of J. H. Rehder & Co., has just received one of the largest consignments of silks ever brought to Wilmington and this will be placed on special sale Monday morning. The advertisement elsewhere in today's paper quotes prices and fabrics. It is worth the reading of careful buyers.

BOYCOTT AND BLACKLIST?

Garment Workers at Chicago Are Likely to Feel the Probe.

Chicago, March 2.—Attorney General Stead at Springfield, Il., was today ordered by the strike investigating committee of the State Senate to begin criminal proceedings against Chicago clothing manufacturers who are accused in the committee's report of maintaining a blacklist.

The committee investigated the strike of garment workers in this city and declares that the workers maintained a card index system which was in effect a boycott and blacklist, which prevented "undesirable" workers from obtaining employment.

Hear the Orchestra.

Special programme today—Grand Theatre. **

..Theatrical..

Joyland.

This popular theatre has just finished the biggest two days' run in its history, presenting one of the greatest films ever produced to crowded houses. The price will drop to the regulation "five cents, a nickle" with today, and the same big value will be given as formerly for this small price. This morning from 10:30 to 12:30 they will run this great Western picture which has been on the boards for the past two days, complimentary to all the school children in the city. Just come down and go right in. It won't cost a penny to see what hundreds paid 10 cents to see yesterday, and were well satisfied. The regular show begins at 2:30 this afternoon, with a big show. First will be a big comic, "The Genius," followed by another big one of a different nature, and ending with another big comedy. Mr. Reilly will sing a new song also.

Grand Theatre.

For today the Theatre Beautiful offers an unusually strong bill, and it being Saturday, no doubt will jam the house all day. There will be four of the very latest pictures and with the big screen and musical effects, they will be very interesting and educational. Mr. McAnnallan will sing "Every Little Movement," which is one of the most popular songs of the season. Many Grand goers who like this song will be delighted that Mr. McAnnallan has selected this popular air for today's bill. The orchestra will play a programme of popular music, and shoppers will find the Grand a most comfortable place to spend an hour and rest. Doors open at 11 A. M. with a continuous performance.

The Bijou Today.

Another big Saturday programme at the Bijou today. Four splendid pictures will be shown and each will prove interesting and entertaining to the large number of patrons of the retreat. "The Test" is a charming love story with a clever plot, clearly worked out and admirably acted. It depicts how, in an emergency, a girl's two lovers showed their respective characters and how one of them won the girl. "The Lily of the Tenements" demonstrates the truth of the old saying that "one-half of the world don't know how the other half lives." A splendid comedy is found in "A Romantic Girl,' while "Customs of Buddhists in India" is a fine scenic production.

At the Crystal Palace.

Mr. Billy Van and his clever little partner, Miss Clark, are without a doubt the headliners at the Crystal this week. Mr. Van in his clog, buck and wing dancing is in a class by himself. He has the style, grace and personality of the famous Geo. Cohan. Miss Clark, who is dainty, neat, winsome and attractive, has a style all her own in rendering several up-to-date songs, and is a worthy partner to Mr. Van. Mr. Dixie Taylor in his blackface work is a scream from start to finish; his dog Jasper performs more tricks without the persuasion of a whip than any trained dog on the stage today. Last, but not least, Mr. Summers, formerly of Garden & Summers, and the Three Rockets & Nicodimus, is a whole show unto himself. The bill this week is all that could be asked—refined and clean vaudeville. Those who have missed the show this week have missed a rare treat. Look for next week's programme in the Sunday Star.

INTERVIEW IS DENIED.

Sensational Little Incident in Hayes Trial at Whiteville.

(Special to Charleston Post.)

Whiteville, N. C., March 3.—Sensational little incidents as side issues to the Hayes case were the order of the day yesterday. An interview with Mrs. Hayes, in the jail, on Sunday by a young woman reporter for a local paper and published yesterday, was branded as a fake interview by attorneys for the defense, and the reporter was immediately subpoenaed, but in the meantime the young woman's relatives had learned what was taging place and had her quickly return to her home in South Carolina.

Interest increased steadily by reason of the reports that important new evidence and material witnesses continued to be found, and it is safe to say that when the court convenes on Monday morning, one of the most mysterious and interesting capital cases in the annals of North Carolina's criminal history will have begun. That every inch of the ground will be contended for and the case fought to a finish is readily apparent by the formidable array of counsel on each side.

The interview was held with Mrs. Hayes during religious service at the jail in the presence of others. The reporter left the State as she did not wish to have her name connected with the case as a witness.

THREATEN SCOTT FAMILY.

Blackhand Letters Seek Big Sum—Detectives on Alert.

Erie, Pa., March 3.—Blackhand letters received by the family of Chas. H. Strong, son-in-law of the late William L. Scott, whose mausoleum was desecrated by vandals a few weeks ago, have caused to be summoned half a score of private detectives and post-office inspectors to this city in an effort to find the perpetrators. For two night this week a sum of money said to be in the thousands, laid in an old stump on the Buffalo road a few miles out of the city, guarded by detectives in the hope the writers of the letters would appear and fall into the trap.

While the letters are not made public they are said to have threatened Mrs. Strong unless she complied with the demands.

Two years ago the Strong family was harassed by similar letters and a reward of $1,000 was paid for the arrest of two young men who it was proved, wrote them.

While the money bait failed to produce results, the detectives tonight are still in the city and in constant touch with Chief of Police Edward W. Wagner.

Saluda, S. C., March 2.—Pope B. Havierd, a prominent farmer of this county, was today sentenced to five years on the county chain gang for assaulting and cursing Miss Carrie Mitchell, a school teacher who had whipped one of his children.

SENSATIONAL ITALY MURDER.

Paterno Still Living, But Refuses to Talk of His Crime.

Rome, March 3.—All Rome still is talking of the sensational murder on Thursday of the Princess Giulia Trigona Di Sant 'Erias, the Queen's lady-in-waiting by Lieut. Baron Paterno. Not in many years has the capital been so stirred by a sordid crime.

Paterno late tonight was slowly improving. The buNet which he fired with the intention of killing himself remains imbedded in his skull. Although he is conscious and able to talk, he refused to give any explanation as to why he stabbed and killed the woman who had befriended him.

The police, however, are not averse to making known what their investigations are unfolding. These, they say, show that Paterno treated the woman brutally before he finally killed her. The Princess, frail and unhappy with her husband, they allege fell easy prey to the rapacious nobleman whose scandalous adventures had brought him to the threshold of expulsion from the army.

According to the police Paterno met the princess in 1908 at Palermo. He became the friend also of the prince. The friendship between the two men became so great that Paterno had himself made head of the local Mafia and brought about the election of Prince Trigona as mayor of Palermo.

It is reported also that the Prince, returning home one night from a meeting of the municipal council, found his wife and Paterno together, Enraged the Prince fired upon Paterno, but missed his mark and Paterno escaped.

When Queen Helena was informed of the relations existing between Paterno and the Princess, she called the Princess before her and induced her to confess everything. Throwing herself at the feet of the Queen and crying out in her desperation, the Princess took oath that she would break with Paterno, begin life anew and henceforth be only an affectionate mother to her two little daughters.

From this moment, according to the authorities, Paterno, seeing that his prey was about to escape, became furious in his actions toward the Princess and several times created scenes even within the quirinal itself, shouting, "I shall murder you; I shall strangle you—here in the royal palace, amid the ladies of the court, next to the Queen."

Paterno's demands for money, it is said, became more and more imperative, and once it is alleged he even attacked the Princess in the antechamber to the room in which were the King and Queen. The Princess, in defending herself on this occasion, had her bracelet broken and this Paterno picked up and put in his pocket. Then he left her, still threatening.

The patrimony of the Princess because of her loans or gifts to Paterno is said to have been reduced to $160 a month.

When the tragedy occurred the two daughters of the murdered woman were driving out in a court carriage. When they returned to the quirinal they asked, as was their custom, for their mother. No one had the heart to tell them the truth, so they were informed that the Princess had met with an automobile accident and that her return to the palace therefore would be delayed. Two locks of hair were cut today from the head of the dead woman and later will be given to her children.

A post mortem examination today showed that the Princess was first wounded in the back and then in the neck. Either of the wounds would have been mortal. On the left arm alos were found two slight wounds.

BE NO REAPPORTIONMENT.

Bill be Allowed to Remain With Senate Committee on Census.

Wasington, March 3.—There will be no Congressional re-apportionment by the 61st Congress. This was decided at 2 o'clock this morning. The re-apportionment bill fixing the number of representatives at 433, which passed the House earlier in the session, had for various reasons been allowed to remain in the Senate Committee on Census until yesterday, when in the absence of Chairman La-Follette, Senator Hale sought to have it reported for action before the final adjournment of Congress. The opposition was so decided, however, as to render it impossible for the bill to get through.

LEAVING JAIL IN GROUPS.

Industrial Workers Agree to Get Out Fresno at Once.

Fresno, Cal., March 3.—Following an agreement between Industrial Workers of the World and city authorities here, thirty-seven of the industrialists were released from jail yesterday. Others will be released in small numbers to prevent possible rioting.

One man was re-arrested immediately when detected passing a note through a jail window. He was placed in a dark cell and the other prisoners in the jail held an indignation meeting. It is feared that this incident may interrupt the carrying out of the peace agreement.

Most of the industrialists released immediately stood by their agreement to leave the city.

SHEEHAN ELECTION IMPOSSIBLE

Is opinion of Governor Dix—Issues a Statement.

Wanhington, March 3—A statement from Governor John A. Dix on the senatorial situation, in which he says that "events have demonstrated the impossibility of his (Sheehan's), election, and advising the Democratic members of the Legislature to "immediately proceed in the joint assembly to ballot as your conscience and the will of your constituents may dictate whose choice will unite the Democratic party," was received and made public here tonight.

The statement is addressed to the Democratic members of the Legislature, and in it the governor tells how he has steadily adhered to the position not to interfere with the Legislature in the choice of a senator.

"But," he continues, "the present unprecedented and divided condition of the party's councils in regard to the choice of a senator, are preventing the exercise of the constitutional duty which rests upon the Legislature," and he therefore now feels he may properly advise the Legislature.

"When Mr. Sheehan became the choice of the caucus I felt that he was entitled," the governor says, "within reasonable limits of time, to the fullest opportunity to convince the dissenting members of the party and the Legislature that his candidacy was for the best interests of the party as a whole.

"But events have since demonstrated the impossibility of his election and therefore I do not believe that his candidacy should be further continued."

TAFT AND CONGRESS.

Has Not Decided When He Will Issue Proclamation.

Washington, March 3.—Having abandoned hope of seeing reciprocity passed by the present Congress, President Taft late today after returning from his usual long afternoon walk declared that he had noticed the setting sun, but that he also had seen a moon in the heavens. The President has not yet decided when he will issue his proclamation calling the new Congress together, nor has the date been fixed. Despite the fact that the measure which above all others he desired to see passed at this session, did not become law, the President was rejoicing tonight over the large number of bills he favored, which have been passed.

The judiciary codification bill he considers one of the most important additions to the legal procedure of the country passed in the last half century. The provision for the fortification of the Panama Canal was particularly pleasing to him.

Much has been accomplished by the present session, he feels, which would be of lasting benefit to the country. He had no unkind words for the dying Congress because it could not see its way clear to pass his reciprocity measure. He is waiting for the "new moon" of the coming Congress to fulfill his desires in that direction.

IRREGULAR DAY FOR COTTON

Close Barely Steady at Net Decline of Seven to Fourteen Points—Market Was Very Nervous. Sharp Reactions.

New York, March 3.—The cotton market was nervous and irregular today with the close barely steady at a net decline of 7 to 14 points; generally 7 to 8 points lower on old crop positions.

The opening was steady at a decline of 5 to 11 points under a continuation of yesterday's selling movement with May contracts selling at 14.34 or about 30 points under the high level of yesterday morning. This was lower than due on the somewhat disappointing cables and prices soon rallied on a renewal of bull support and covering of shorts, but after selling up to 14.53 for May or to a net advance of about 5 to 7 points, on old crop positions, the market again weakened.

Rumors that an extra session of Congress was most probable and private cables from Liverpool reporting that a meeting of Lancashire spinners would be held on March 10th, to discuss a short time proposition, caused considerable liquidation and there were sharp reactions with new crop months selling into new low ground for the day during the late trading.

Reports of two small mill failures in Georgia probably added to the nervousness of the market, although it was said that the mills involved were too small to make the matter of much importance.

The into-sight figures for the week proved about as expected, attracting comparatively little attention and while the publication of the figures showing spinners takings were followed by a slight rally, the improvement did not hold owing to continued scattering liquidation and bear pressure. Much of the early buying was believed to be covering by Liverpool straddlers who had sold May here against purchases in Liverpool earlier in the season, and after the close of the English market there was less support on the dips here. The trade seemed to be very nervous over the situation in Washington, evidently fearing action on the Scott bill in the event of an extra session.

Receipts at the ports today 17,665 bales against 27,113 last week and 2,133 last year; for the week 103,000 bales against 108,045 last week and 73,091 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 6,165 bales against 5,311 last year.

Spot closed quiet, 5 points lower; middling uplands 14.55; middling gulf 14.70; sales 3,225 bales. Futures opened steady and closed barely steady.

UPWARD TENDENCY IN STOCKS

Movements on Exchange Largely Affected by Reports from Washington—Few Material New Gains Were Recorded.

New York, March 3.— Movements on the stock exchange today were affected largely by the tenor of reports from Washington. The market was irregular, with an upward tendency in spite of the difficulties which beset bullish operators, but few material net gains were recorded at the close. Apprehensions of an extra session of Congress with it possibilities of tariff changes overshadawed all other influences, and the conflicting reports heard on Wall street from Washington made the market nervous all day. Buying movements in the morning were interfered with by liquidation whenever improvement was well under way, but in the afternoon the market grew somewhat steadier and prices moved upwards slowly.

United States rubber and general electric were conspicuously weak. Rubber shares sold today at a figure omre than six points under Wednesday's top price, but rallied late in the session and closed with only a fractional loss on the day. Weakness of general electric was attributed to filing of a Federal suit, under the anti-trust law, against a number of electrical companies alleged to be in the control of general electric.

Copper shares made a good showing despite indifferent trade conditions.

The short interests was less aggressive in its operations today; in fact, the element covered certain stocks moderately. The opinion of some impartial traders was that yesterday's sales for this account were extended to a degree which placed bear operators in a position of precarious uncertainty.

Officials of various western railroads denied reports that curtailment of operations had been decided upon because of the freight rates decision. A number of additional reports of earnings for January were received among which that of the New Haven was conspicuous by reason of its increase in net earnings of $688,000. Illinois Central Chicago, Burlington and Quincy and Missouri Kansas and Texas reported less striking gains, and decreases were shown by Pittsburg Cincinnati Chicago and St. Louis, Atlantic Coast Line, Baltimore and Ohio, Chesapeake and Ohio, and Louisville and Nashville.

The main point reflected in these reports it would seem is that the transportation companies are beginning to feel more keenly the arrest of general business which began some months ago and is now showing signs of recovery.

The money movement between clearing house banks and the subtreasury this week was at no time very heavy and the receipt of funds from the Interior, while it continued, was of comparatively small volume. Estimates indicate that the outcome as shown in tomorrow's bank statement, will be a gain of perhaps $4,000,000.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $2,589,000. United States were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day 502,700 shares.

REVIEW OF COTTON FOR WEEK

Foray on Part of Leading Bulls at Expense of Loaded Shorts—Prices Got Setback Toward the Close of Week.

New York, March 3.—The week in the cotton market has been distinguished by a foray on the part of leading bulls at the expense of loaded shorts not only here and at the South, but also in Liverpool. Prices have therefore sharply advanced. The May option was reached at premium of 85 cents a bale over July and has clung tenaciously to it even in moments of reaction.

Towards the close of the week prices got a setback from a fall of quotations at the stock exchange and the news from Washington that an extra session of Congress seems unavoidable. tI is assumed that in the extra session another attempt will be made to pass the Scott anti-option bill. Moreover the Liverpool spot sales have been small, spot trade at the South is described as dull; quotation, particularly in Texas are said to have been shaded; trade in yarns and cloths both at home and abroad is not up to expectations and finally while the advance of late has been largely due to what are termed speculative technical conditions, the short interests on the rise of about 75 points has been considerably reduced. It is said that the short interest among straddles hedgers, and out and out speculators is still large, but the pressure to cover is not so great as it was some days ago. Meantime, too, reprts from Texas and elsewhere at the South are that the effect that the soil is in good condition, that farm work is well advanced and that everything points to an unusually large acreage this Spring. Some more of the mills in New England and at the South it is said, are curtailing their production. The 1910 crop of Egypt is said to have broken all records. Present visible supplies in this country and Europe are with one exception the largest on record. It is nevertheless true, however, that these supplies are decreasing more rapidly than they were a year ago, that receipts at the ports and interior towns have latterly fallen off noticeably and that the certificated stock at New York is steadily decreasing having diminished during February nearly 500 bales. The movement of the East Indian crop is small. Some reports from Lancashire are to the effect that the plague and famine in China have thus far had no effect on the English trade in piece goods. Chicago reports state that while the improvement in business may be slow it is steady. Exports of raw cotton from this country have recently been large. Considerable of the New York stock, it is said will be shipped out in the near future. Finally, bears have received such a sharp lesson in the past week that they are cautious. Powerful interests identified with the metal trade own considerable of the New York stock and together with certain spot interests and a large Texas operator are believed to be keeping a sharp eye on Liverpool straddlers who made the original straddle by buying in Liverpool and selling in New York, and also on other shorts.

Thousands bless them for curing stomach trouble, female complaints, kidney disorders, biliousness, and for new health and vigor. Try them. Only 50c at R. R. Bellamy's.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW.

Spring Jobbing Trade Tends to Expand—Other Features.

New York, March 3.—Bradstreet's today will say: Spring jobbing trade tends to expand, but does so gradually with conservatism still in evidence, and with small lot buying for actual requirements very generally governing. As a whole trade is larger than in the like period of the preceding month, but fails to show the improvement expected over the like period a year ago. Spring jobbing trade in dry goods is not yet under full headway, for which conservatism, uncertainty as to prices and the later date of the Easter season is probably responsible. Retail trade for Spring has not opened actively as yet. Indeed, at most centers retailers are still busied with the disposal of carried over stocks, for which price concessions are in evidence. Collections show little improvement and are still slow to fair.

In the industries the irregularity earlier manifested is still in evidence. Textile lines show unsatisfactory demand ruling, reduced outputs, small profits and much idle machinery. The leather trade is quiet, tanneries are still curtailing, and shoe manufacturers are not receiving normal Spring business.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending March, were 246 against 228 last week and 184 in the like week of 1910.

EUROPE CONTINUES LOWEST.

Heavy Movement of Cotton Crop Affects Foreign Markets.

(Special Star Telegram.

New York, March 3.—Europe continues to be the lowest market apparently being impressed with the continued heavy movement of the crop in face of reports from the South of the cotton being all out. Our market opened lower under realizing on cotton bought earlier in the week, rallied, and finally closed at about the opening prices with the feeling heavy and the local trade of the opinion that some long interest had sold freely during the past few days. Rumors of large shipments from our stock continue to be in circulation leading many to look for receipts from the South to replenish the stock on any further advance.

Tonight the trade look for lower markets tomorrow on the insight figures. Rumors of an extra session of Congress and of small mill failures in North Carolina and Georgia had depressing effect on sentiment.

of a low order by a low class of men," said Senator Stone. "The charge made by the senator from Kansas is a very serious one—and I call his attention to the fact that he has not yet exonerated the officials I have mentioned. I desire to know what influence he has in mind."

Senator Bristow said he meant that political influences had been at work against the magazines for a number of years.

The various features of the postoffice bill were discussed at great length and it was nearly 7 o'clock before it finally was passed. A provision combining the appropriations for rural free delivery service and star routes aroused the suspicions of some of the Democratic senators who feared that it was the purpose of the department to cut off a number of the rural free delivery routes and substitute the old star route or contract service.

Senator Carter, of Montana, explained that while the provision would give to the Postmaster General just about the same discretion he now has, the interchanging the different services, the provision really was intended to bring the two services under one head in the department and to simplify accounts.

Senator Bankhead insisted that Congress should retain the right to say how much should be spent on each service.

Senator Swanson declared the provision was "an insidious effort to destroy rural free delivery" and he charged that the present administration of the department was not friendly to that service. Senator Simmons agreed with Mr. Swanson. He declared the provision to be "a deliberate conspiracy against this great service to the farmer." He admitted that the star service was much cheaper, but declared it to be much less efficient than the rural service.

Senator Root taunted the Democrats for their "sudden great friendliness" for rural free delivery which he asserted was wholly a Republican institution.

Senator Johnston ended the debate and straightened out the tangle by adding a proviso that not more than $7,117,000 of the total amount of $49,000,000 for the two services should be spent on the star routes. This leaves the division of the appropriation as at present. The amendment was accepted by every one.

Points of order were sustained against a proposed experiment in carrying packages under a parcels post system and also against an item of $50,000 for an investigation into the feasibility of establishing a parcels post.

Following the adoption of the bill the Senate took a recess until 9 P. M.

Before passing the postoffice bill the Senate passed the Sundry Civil and the Naval bills, two more of the great supply measures for administration of the government.

BROWN GETS THE DECISION.

World's Light-Weight Champion Loses in New York.

New York, March 3.—Valentine (Knockout) Brown, the low-headed little New York lightweight, gained a popular decision over Ad. Wolgast, the world's light-weight champion, in a scathing 10-round bout tonight at the National Sporting Club of America. Three weeks ago Brown fought Wolgast at Philadelphia and the crowd of 3,000 which saw him fight tonight voted him a victory although the law requires that no decision be rendered.

Brown forced the fighting from the start, and, on the whole, gave more punishment than he received.

In the clinches Wolgast showed superior ringmanship with his infighting. His tactics were so rough, however, that they brought hisses from the spectators. Neither man was in distress at any time during the regular bout, and no blood was drawn. In the last round Brown was backing toward the ropes as Wolgast rushed him. They clinched and fell through the ropes together and Brown would have fallen from the ring when a cluster of hands shoved him back.

The usual crowd of sporting celebrities witnessed the bout and every available inch of the club house was packed.

TRUE BILLS AT NORFOLK.

Against Judges of Election in Democratic Congressional Primary.

Norfolk, Va., March 3.—The Norfolk county grand jury today returned true bill indictments against the judges of election in the Halls Corner and Zion church precincts, of Norfolk county, in the Democratic Congressional primary of August last. This action was in spite of the absence of poll books, which were missing from a box that had been broken into. Members of the investigating committee testified as to the contents of the books. The grand jury found no evidence to justify the charges of gambling violations at Ocean View.

MRS. WEISIGER PASSES.

Relict of Late Gen. David Weisiger, Dies at Petersburg.

Petersburg, Va., March 3.—Mrs. Louise Christine Weisiger, relict of General David A. Weisiger, died at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. Willson Bragg, the result of a paralytic stroke. Mrs. Weisiger was a Miss Bland before her marriage to General Weisiger in 1862. She was a native of Amelia county.

General Weisiger died in Richmond ten years ago. He has the undying fave of having commanded the Mahone Brigade at the Battle of the Crater.

ate, but the House did not manifest enough liking for it to send it on to the White House.

Barren as the final session may have been of fruitful legislation the Republican leaders point to the preceding session as more fruitful.

For the first, or the extra session, they to:

The Payne-Aldrich tariff act, with its maximum and minimum features and corporation tax provisions, and its customs court.

The resolution providing for an income tax amendment to the constitution.

For the first regulth session they refer to the laws for:

Establishment of postal savings banks.

Admission of New Mexico and Arizona to Statehood.

The most extensive census ever taken.

Creation of the commerce court, and sweeping amendments to the interstate commerce act.

Ballinger-Pinchot investigation.

Conservation legislation, including authorization of withdrawal of public lands to preserve water sites, and authorization of the issue of $20,000,000 in bonds for completing irrigating projects.

Legislation designed to suppress the "white slave trade."

Publicity of campaign contributions at election of members of the House.

Amendment to the employers liability act of 1908; supplemental safety appliance act; requirement that railroads report accidents to Interstate Commerce Commission, and establishment of a Bureau of Mines.

Reorganization of lighthouse service.

Authorization of expenditure of $28,000,000 for public buildings.

held objection at the instance of Minority Leader Clark and to the surprise of the House the motion carried.

Democrats Rejoice.

The proceedings in the House during the evening ranged from a Democratic filibuster which quickly collapsed, to galaxy of speeches that were delivered for the sole purpose of entertainment. Mr. Heflin, of Alabama, in a humorous speech as the clock pointed toward midnight, drifted into political prophecy, pointing to a Democratic President in 1913. Mr. Heflin proceeded, with liberal intermixture of anecdote and poetry, there was uproarious laughter, while from the Democratic cloak room drifted the strains of popular songs rendered by groups of Congressmen.

Mr. Nye, of Minnesota, delivered a speech of good cheer and Mr. Cox, of Ohio, a Democrat, paid a high tribute to the services of Representative Keifer, of Ohio, the only living ex-Speaker of the House, who retires from Congress tomorrow. Amid great applause General Keifer responded with a speech.

DEMOCRATIC CONFERENCE.

Agreed to Hold Caucus When Extra Session is Called.

Washington, March 3.—At an informal conference of Democratic representatives today Representative Clayton, of Alabama, chairman of the caucus, was authorized to call a caucus of Democratic representatives of Congress immediately after a call for an extra session, if the President should issue such a call. The caucus will perfect the House organization including the election of Representative Clark, of Missouri, as speaker.

The committee selections will not be made at that time, as the Committee naming Ways and Means Committee will not have had time to submit its selection of personnel of committees.

The caucus will be held the day preceding the convening of an extra session, if such a session be called for March 15th, or thereabouts, but if Congress should not be called to convene for a month yet, the caucus would be held at 10 A. M., two days before th extra session, or three days before if necessary to avoid meeting on Sunday.

EXPRESS STRIKE SETTLED.

Company Acceded to Demands—Last Only Few Hours.

New York, March 3.—The second strike of the United States Express Company drivers and helpers within a year, called unexpectedly this morning, was settled this afternoon in time for the 1,000 strikers here and in Jersey City to earn a portion of their day's pay. The company acceded to two of the three demands made by the men and the strikers gave in on the third one. Men and officials alike, with the memory of last Fall's long clash fresh in mind, welcomed the compromise.

The drivers objected to the assignment of a man who had been in the service only three years as driver of a money wagon. By the agreement today this seniority rule is upheld and the job is given to a man who had been in the service for twenty years. A driver recently discharged is to be reinstated also, an investigation having shown that he was dismissed without cause. The demand that a second discharged driver be reinstated was withdrawn by the men.

PARCELS POST DEFEATED.

Item in Postoffice Appropriation Bill Was Struck Out.

Washington, March 3.—Plans of the Postoffice Department for the establishment of a parcels post system was as an experiment was defeated today when the Senate on a point of order, raised by Senator Bailey, of Texas, struck from the postoffice appropriation bill an item of $50,000 designed to put into effect the proposed system on April 1st.

In reading store ads most people are looking for definite information bout some particular article—hence merchants should quote prices always.

combination and conspiracy in the manufacture and sale of incandescent electric light bulbs. Other separate actions against combinations, alleged to involve illegal agreement relating to the manufacture and sale of practically every other appliance necessary to the varied use of electricity have been in the process of incubation in the Department of Justice for months. Whether they will ever be brought into court probably depends upon the outcome of the suit just filed.

The General Electric Company is the principal company in the suit, involving the electric light bulb section of the business and alleging unlawful agreements beginning with the machinery and ending with alleged price-fixing and control of dealers.

One of the interesting features is that the government's investigation dates back to May, 1908, when the Navy Department invited bids for furnishing 340,000 incandescent lamps. Fourteen bids were received and 13 of them were identical to a penny $40,631.23. The investigation soon after developed the fact that 80,000,000 incandescent lamps are used each year in the United States valued at about $18,000,000. The defendants in the suit filed today are charged with controlling the manufacture and sale of 97 per cent. of that amount.

Attorney General Wickersham has given much personal attention to the suit. His assistant W. S. Kenyon, is in direct charge of it and Wade H. Ellis is one of the specially retained counsel for the government.

FALSE REPORT.

Granite Falls Company in No Trouble Says Commission.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., March 3.—A report gained currency in and out the State today that the Granite Falls Savings & Trust Company, at Haw River, had failed and been closed by the North Carolina Corporation Commission, a receiver being in charge. The Corporation Commission here announces that there is nothing in the report as to the Commission having taken any action and if the bank is in any trouble the Commission would be advised. J. A. Long is cashier. The capital is $5,000.

(By Associated Press.)

Haw River, N. C., March 3.—The Granite Savings & Trust Company closed its doors today closely followed by the announcement that the Trollinwood Manufacturing Company, which operates a big cotton mill here, had gone into voluntary bankruptcy. B. S. Robertson and J. W. Trollinger, the chief stockholders in both concerns, filed the applications and it is said here that these men, both of whom are among the most prominent capitalists in this section of the State, are insolvent. It is reported tonight that other local concerns are involved in the failures. Charles A. Scott was appointed receiver of the bank, which has a capital of $5,000 and deposits of $30,000. The liabilities of the mill, it is understood, will reach nearly a million dollars.

NEED NEW COAST DEFENSE.

Asks Appropriatoin of $150,000 for Cape Henry, Va.

Washington, March 3.—A plea for the appropriation of $15,000 for the acquisition of lands for coast defense at Cape Henry, Va., which defense plan the government boards have been recommending for years, were made in the House today by Mr. Maynard, of Virginia.

Mr. Maynard said the Taft board of defense named the protection of the Chesapeake capes as the most important project in its recommendations to Congress.

"Chesapeake Bay," said Mr. Maynard, "is entirely unprotected. If a foreign foe in the Atlantic ocean wanted to strike us the first place they would strike would be Cape Henry. Once inside the capes, Norfolk, Richmond, Baltimore, Philadelphia and the National capital itself would be at the mercy of a foreign fleet."

The appropriation was carried in an item in disagreement in the fortifications bill which was sent back to conference. The amendment to make the $150,000 appropriation was stricken.

SCRIMMAGE AMONG MEXICANS.

Rurales and Rebels Fought Near Border—Several Arrests.

El Paso, Texas, March 3.—A hundred insurrectos appeared this afternoon on Mexican soil opposite the El Paso smelter and exchanged shots with a few Federal rurales. The scrimmage was seen by employes of the smelter. Federal infantry left Juarez at once for the scene.

The Federal soldiers were unable to find any insurrectos and returned to Juarez. United States troops today arrested 25 insurrectos on American soil. They are in El Paso jail.

Colonel Rabago, with 650 men, arrived in Juarez tonight from Ahumada.

ABE RUEF, CONVICT, TO APPEAL.

Frisco Boss Hopes to Carry His Case Into the Federal Courts.

San Francisco, March 3.—According to a morning paper, Abraham Ruef will appeal to the Federal Circuit Court against the sentence of 14 years' imprisonment imposed upon him by the State courts for bribery of a city supervisor.

If he fails to obtain relief from the Circuit Court, it is said his attorney will appeal to the United States Supreme Court making application for his release on bail pending the hearing of his claim for a writ of error.

Ruef will contend that his constitutional rights have been violated by a defective indictment, conviction without due process of law and his failure to obtain a "day in court" before the State Supreme Court.
